Senate Debates Urban Tax Bill

Lafayette and Orinda were closely watching the news from Sacramento this week as the Legislature's session neared adjournment.

Main reason for concern was the Senate battle over the "urban unincorporated areas" measure (A.B. 3217), which late Tuesday night received a 7-2 "do pass" recommendation by the Senate Local Government Committee, following its passage last week by the Assembly, 46 to 14.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE'S favorable recommendation was on motion of Senator George Miller, Jr., of Richmond.

In the Assembly action Assemblyman Robert L. Condon voted against the bill.

Senators Edwin Regan of Weaverville and Louis Sutton of Maxwell were the two Senate committee members who voted against a "do pass" recommendation. They sought a two-year delay so that interim study of the proposal could be made.

INTERIM STUDY WAS also sought by a large delegation of county officials from throughout the state who were present. Contra Costa supervisors, including Board Chairman Jack Cummings, supervisor from this district, were there to oppose the bill.

If enacted, the measure would mean that communities like Lafayette and Orinda would have to pay extra taxes for certain essential county services after January 1, 1954. The Lafayette Improvement Association, Lafayette Chamber of Commerce and Orinda Association have opposed the measure, as have the County Board of Supervisors and the County Supervisors Association of California.

Glorietta Association Picks Officers, Plans to Continue Improvement Efforts

Glorietta Improvement Association held its annual meeting June 13 in Orinda School auditorium.

Retiring President Joseph R. Creighton rendered a report on the activities of the association, which is concluding another successful year, with more than 30 additional homes in its district completed.

In efforts to maintain established standards for the construction of houses, Creighton was ably assisted by the Plans Approval Committee, under the chairmanship of Carl R. Meurk.

OTHER TASKS UNDERTAKEN during the year included erection of suitable street signs at the main intersections.

A very successful party for the members of the association was held at Carroll's Ranch in the fall of 1950, arranged by Arthur R. Anderson.

After a review of the association's financial position by the outgoing secretary-treasurer, Donn Sigerson, Creighton, on behalf of the nominating committee, presented the names of the new officers and directors, which were approved unanimously.

ELECTED WERE:

President Earl Doxsee, Vice-President Carl R. Meurk, Secretary-Treasurer Paul L. Pollaczek and Directors Maynard P. Buehler, Frank J. Cayting, Joseph R. Creighton, T. E. Harrer and Donn Sigerson.

Also nominated were the new members of the Plans Approval Committee: Marie Brown, Robert D. MacIntyre and Chairman Hart Livingston.

THE NEW PRESIDENT thanked Creighton for the splendid services he had rendered the association as president. Doxsee promised to carry on the work, with particular emphasis upon enforcement of deed restrictions, representation of the association before the Planning Commission in Martinez and improvement of roads in the area, which deteriorated markedly last winter because of sewer construction.

Those present were told that the County Road Department has promised to repave Glorietta Boulevard in the near future, and Doxsee was asked to continue efforts toward improvement of conditions of feeder roads.

A committee to arrange another party in the Fall will be appointed in the near future.

Hospital Plans Not for Orinda Or Lafayette

Lafayette and Orinda are not included in plans for a new hospital district now being discussed in Walnut Creek and Concord.

Petitions are being circulated to P.T.A. units in the Walnut Creek area by John A. Nejedly, chairman of the Central Contra Costa Memorial Hospital Association.

Sufficient signatures would annex Walnut Creek to the Concord Hospital District and would set the stage for a bond issue election this Fall.

Gardening 'Aid' Salesmen Promise Part Repayment

It was a wonderful garden fertilizing product in the descriptions of the salesmen, but, according to Inspector Norman Wilson of the sheriff's office, a state laboratory analysis in Sacramento showed that the stuff wasn't even good topsoil.

So when Deputy Sheriffs Louis Skuce and Clinton Jones arrested Joseph Edward Benoit, 35, ond Russell O. Hatch, 42, in Concord June 14, the sheriff's office felt there was good ground for suspicion of fraud.

Assistant District Attorney Wakefield Taylor, however, felt otherwise, Wilson reported, and let the men go on their promise to make restitution of half the money which had been paid them by customers.

The two salesmen, from Southern California, had distributed literature from the B&B Nursery and had asked a "fabulous" price for the product, Wilson said. They approached home gardeners in this area.

"This should be a lesson to gardeners to buy their supplies from reputable business firms in the community and not from 'hot shots' who flit through the area," the inspector cautioned.

Roberta Spiegl Officially Named Defense Head

George Burton, assistant director of the Contra Costa County Civil Defense and Disaster Relief Council ,announced this week he had officially appointed Roberta Spiegl as coordinator for the recently formed Orinda civilian defense council.

Mrs. Spiegl, who lives at 308 La Espiral, was recommended for the post by the Orinda Association Board of Directors. She will serve as liaison person between the Orinda council and the county.

Recommendation by the Orinda Association of a coordinator was at Burton's suggestion.

Dr. T. N. Barrows Sails for Japan

Dr. T. N. Barrows of Orinda sailed last Friday for Japan on a business trip for the Extension Division of the University of California, of which he is associate director.

Dr. Barrows will be gone for seven weeks. Mrs. Barrows and their daughter Nancy are in Carmel this week visiting her parents.

'No' on Further Sewer Annexing

Cresta Vista, 26-lot subdivision in Pleasant Hill, edged "under the wire" June 7, so far as eligiblity for annexation to the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District is concerned — but the problem of costs makes admission uncertain.

Meeting at its Walnut Creek office, the Sanitary District board decided to leave the door open for Cresta Vista's entry into the district but indicated this would be the last annexation allowed for some time, except possibly for areas which could pay their own way for any resultant necessary expansion of distrcit facilities.

This decision followed a period of about a month in which the board placed the entire annexation problem "on ice" pending study.

Promiscuous annexations, sewer district board members explained would require expansion of the treatment plant and other facilities much sooner than had been expected.

Despite the green light for Cresta Vista, a delegation from the tract stated that the matter of costs made it uncertain as to whether the subdivision could take advantage of it.

Total costs of the annexation were fixed by the board at $5,600. This would amount to about $215 per lot.

BIG DAY AT ORINDA NURSERY SCHOOL was "graduation" day, when some 70 Orinda and Lafayette youngsters who will be ready for regular school kindergarten next Fall received their diplomas. Here are four of the children participating in last week's ceremonies. Bill Ray of Lafayette (left) looks mighty proud as he holds his diploma, while Gay Price of Orinda receives hers from Mrs. W. A. Patterson, head teacher, and Sally Sutton of Orinda and Bryan Van Sant of Orinda await their turns. Standing behind the children are Mrs. E. J. Unruh (left), outgoing president of the Orinda Nursery School Association, and Mrs. James R. Seaman, new president.

Lafayette, Orinda Lions Install New Officers

At the first joint rites held by Lafayette and Orinda Lions Clubs, 1951-52 officers for both groups were installed at the Orinda Willows Monday night.

A "ladies 'night," dinner and dancing highlighted the program. Installing officer for the event was Thomas S. Neilson, past international director of Lions.

G. R. "Hap" Robertson was installed to head the Lafayette group. Others are Don Patton, first vice-president; Bob Sterling ,treasurer; Erwin Mattson, secretary; Buddy Webber, lion tamer; Drummond McCunn, tail twister; new directors, Cliff Brooks and Don Clark.

President Jerry McKinley was installed to lead Orinda Lions. Walt Friberg is vice-president; Kenneth Courtright, second vice-president; Bart McMahon ,third vice-president; Joe Navone, secretary; C. P. McVicker, treasurer; Bob Frolich, lion tamer; Matt Allen, tail twister; directors Stewart Wade and Tommy Snow.

One-hundred per cent attendance awards were presented to the following Lafayette Lions: Silvio De Angelis, retiring president; Don Clark, Don Gibson, Gordon Hooper. G. R. Robertson, C. N. Meyers and Buddy Webber. Clark, De Angelis and oRbertson also received five-year pins.

Retiring president of the Orinda Lions is Don Hunter.

Lafayette, Orinda Drivers in Crash

Cars driven by Walter Owen, 26, 61 Moraga Highway, Orinda, and Enis Maas, 42, 3337 Victoria Avenue, Lafayette, collided early Tuesday evening on Mt. Diablo Boulevard near Victoria Avenue, according to the California Highway Patrol.

No one was injured in the rear-end crash. Both cars were going west and the car driven by Owen bumped into the rear of the other vehicle, the patrol reported.

70 New Freshmen Graduate from Orinda's Schools

Ready for the big adventure of being Acalanes freshmen in the Fall are the 70 students who graduated from Orinda and Glorietta Schools last Friday night.

The auditorium at Orinda School was completely filled with relatives and friends at the commencement exercises. President Edgar Stewart of the Board of Trustees handed the graduates their diplomas after earlier portions of the impressive program—and the largest class ever had by the Orinda Union School District was history.

Guest speaker was Dr. Enoch Dumas, University of California lecturer in education.

The class of 1951 was presented by the two eighth grade teachers, Mrs. Florence Beeman of Glorietta and James E. Comer of Orinda.

Invocation was offered by Rev. Fred Morrow.

Musical numbers, presentation of class gifts by the graduates and the annual scholarship awards by the Orinda Lions Club were other highlights of the ceremonies.

Following the exercises, President Stewart observed:

"At the rate the school population is growing, there's little doubt that next year the Orinda School auditorium won't be large enough for the audience at the graduation."

Rites Held for Mrs. Thompson

Funeral services for Evangeline C. Thompson of 40 Oakwood Road were held at the chapel of Albert Brown Mortuary, Oakland, Monday, following her death in Orinda June 14.

Survivors include her widower, Eugene E. Thompson; her mother, Mrs. Eva Conner of Monrovia, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. David Kennedy of Tillamook, Ore., and Mrs. John E. Mueller of Monrovia, and two brothers, Raymond M. Conner of Cleveland, Ohio, and Harold H. Conner of Antioch.

A member of the First Christian Church of Oakland, Mrs. Thompson was a native of Missouri.

E.B.M.U.D. Plans to Seek Rezoning of Pine Grove Area

Land Agent Phil Wagner of the East Bay Municipal Utility District disclosed Monday night that E.B.M.U.D. hopes to have some 38 acres of pine grove land at the Crossroads rezoned for business before it offers the land for public sale.

This was one of the highlights of the monthly meeting of the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association at Orinda Grammar School.

DELEGATES FROM local improvement groups and other organizations traded views informally with Wagner.

Supervisor Jack Cummings, present to talk about supervisorial district boundaries, entered into the discussion.

Civic Affairs Chairman Zach Montgomery asked delegates for the attitude of their groups on future Crossroads area development.

REACTIONS REPORTED were summarized later in the evening by Montgomery as follows:

"1.—We recognize and would accept a certain area for business.

"2.—We'd like some assurances that the type of structures would conform to Orinda architecture.

"4.—We'd like some sort of park area as a buffer strip."

Cummings pointed out that once an area is zoned for commercial usage, "anything commercial can go in there—you wouldn't have any control over it."

Kirk Miles, Orinda Association president, mentioned that all the land now owned by E.B.M.U.D. in the Orinda area, including the pine grov esection, is zoned R-A.

RAMSAY UNDERWOOD expressed doubt as to advisability of another business area now. "The present business areas aren't fully developed," he stressed.

Some other comments were:

Ned Fowler: "I can't for the life of me see why a well-planned business development wouldn't enhance the value of property."

Frank Hart: "Any way you look at it, it's still your front door."

Frank Cayting: "We must come up with something constructive, to pass on to the utility district."

Mrs. George Vurek: "We (the Orinda High School Mothers Club) have disbanded for the summer, but the general opinion seems to be in favor of a planned shopping area, in conformity with the pine grove area."

Monday night's discussion was an outgrowth of a recent meeting of a Crossroads planning committee consisting of Civic Affairs representatives, Wagner and General Manager John W. McFarland of the E.B.M.U.D.

'Welcome' Sign Will Be Moved, Painted Brown

That "Welcome to Orinda" sign just west of the Crossroads at the south side of Mt. Diablo Boulevard will be moved shortly, according to President Frank Olsen of the Orinda Rotary Club.

What's more, it will be painted a nice, new brown, to blend with its surroundings.

New location for the spruced-up sign is some 50 feet west of the Loop, Wilson and Jewell real estate office on the same side of the highway.

Erection of the sign was a joint venture of the Rotary Club, the Lions Club and the Chamber of Commerce. Reason for the moving is that the sign has been on State Division of Highways property.

Two School Dates On Buses, Taxes

Two important dates coming up soon in the Orinda School District, were underscored this week by President Edgar Stewart of the Board of Trustees.

The first is the July 2 regular monthly meeting of the board, at which bus schedules for the next school year will be planned. School authorities urge all persons with requests regarding bus service to be present. The meeting, at Orinda School, is set for 8 p.m.

The second is the July 9 public information meeting at Orinda School auditorium, where board members and Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff will explain the reasons for decision to raise the 1951-52 school district tax rate to the $1.50 legal maximum, and to ask the voters' approval for another five-year period (July 1, 1952, through June 30, 1957) in which a $1.50 tax limit would be permitted.

The public information meeting will start at 8 p.m.

Law Allows Only 5 Supervisors, Cummings States

Under state law, a county cannot have more than five supervisors, Supervisor Jack Cummings told the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee Monday night.

"San Francisco is an exception, of course, but that's because it is both a city and a county," he said. "Even Los Angeles County, big as it is, has only five districts."

The Board of Supervisors of a county can change the boundaries of districts but cannot create more than five, he explained.

Cummings, chairman of the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors, on which he represents this district, had been invited to the Civic Affairs session at Orinda Grammar School to discuss a proposal for a separate district for the Orinda - Lafayette - Moraga-Walnut Creek-Concord area.

SUGGESTION THAT efforts be made for such a district came several months ago from the Orinda Estates Owners Association, through its secretary, Mrs. Zelda A. Moses, asking cooperation from the Orinda Association.

After Cummings' remarks on the subject, Civic Affairs Chairman Zach Montgomery observed:

"I think Mrs. Moses and her association misinterpreted the law. The picture is clarified now for me."

MONTGOMERY URGED Cummings to see that provision is made in the coming county budget for improvement of Upper El Toyonal, so that school bus service can be resumed there.

"It's a difficult problem," Cummings remarked. "The hillside homes are so close to the road that we can't widen it further without coming right up to people's front porches."

Joseph Downs asked correction of a "bad slide condition" on Sleepy Hollow Lane. "We want the school bus to go around the loop and pick up 12 or 14 youngsters," he said.

"I hope to have money in the next budget for that," Cummings said.

Cummings stated that "in the last two or three months there has been $90,000 in road work in the Orinda area alone."

Ah Those Lovely Two-by-Fours! . . .

Mighty tempting, apparently, are lumber, nails, glass, cement, doors and equipment on construction sites and in company yards.

Inspector Norman Wilson of the sheriff's office reported this week that many thefts of such items have occurred recently on new subdivision sites in this area, as well as at the yards of construction firms.

In an effort to halt the continuing round of these thefts, the sheriff's office has asked contractors and subdividers to cooperate by:

1. Placing valuable tools in a locked box or truck after-hours.

2. Leaving lights on at night at corporation yards.

3. Notifying the sheriff's office propmtly after theft is discovered.

"Most of the thefts have been by adults who recognize good two-by-fours and valuable pieces of equipment when they see them," Inspector Wilson observed.

Wilson said deputy sheriffs were going to get in touch with contractors to obtain an estimate of their recent losses to date.

Dr. Wold Estate Valued $10,000

The estate of the late Dr. Alvin P. Wold, 55, Orinda resident and widely known Oakland physician and eye specialist, was valued at approximately $10,000, according to a petition filed this week in Contra Costa Superior Court.

Dr. Wold died in an Oakland Hospital May 16 after a month's illness. A resident of Orinda for 22 years, he lived with his family at 629 Miner Road.

The widow, Dorothy, is the petitioner. Other survivors include two sons, Ross, 19, and Dexter, 13; a sister, Mrs. Helen Wold Johnson, and two brothers, Dr. Karl C. Wold and the Rev. Norman Wold.

$669,000 Budget Tentatively Set For HS District

At its regular meeting last week, the Acalanes School Board adopted a tentative $669,000 budget for the next school year. This calls for an expenditure of $443,000 for operation of its two high schools and $226,000 for capital outlay.

Superintendent Neil Parsons explained that from the amount set aside for capital outlay, $27,000 will go toward purchasing additional buses and approximately $20,000 for additional facilities, including instructional equipment, furniture and improvements at both the Acalanes and Las Lomas school plants.

The balance of capital outlay funds will be set aside for construction of buildings at Las Lomas and the purchase of a school site in the Orinda area.

Detailed publication of the proposed budget will be made public before the annual budget hearing slated for the first week of August.

School officials declared the operational budget to be up approximately 18 percent over last year because of the rapid growth of the district, increased staff and increases in salaries and general costs of operation.

Explorers Urged To Register Early For T.I. Swim Meet

Explorer Scouts of the Diablo District have until next Wednesday to enter a special Swimming Meet scheduled for Treasure Island on Sunday, July 1, according to Adviser Clifford E. Hubach of Walnut Creek Explorer Post 303.

The July 1 swim tournament will start at 1 p. m. in the Navy's huge indoor pool on Treasure Island.

Entry blanks are now in the mail to all Explorer Advisers and Scout Masters. Any registered Explorer may enter and those interested should immediately contact their Adviser or Scout Master.

The Diablo District Explorers will compete against Explorers from Oakland, Berkeley, Martinez, Concord, Danville, and Canyon. A beautiful trophy will be awarded the winning team with medals presented winners of individual events.

An added attraction will be intermission demonstrations of swimming techniques by Navy specialists, exhibitions by national swim champions and comic divers.

Parents of all those entering are invited to attend. Also family members of all Explorer units and Advisers.

Builder Chief Predicts Easing Of Credit Curbs

Two notes of optimism were injected into the home building picture as William P. Atkinson, president of the National Association of Home Builders, predicted at the recent Home Builders conference in San Francisco that:

1. — Mortgage money would again be available for financing home loans — possibly by next Fall.

2. — Regulation X, the controvercial credit curb imposed by the Federal government last October, would be modified or lifted "as soon as Washington sees the drastic effect it is having on home construction."

Summer Work on Acalanes Grounds Okayed by Board

The Acalanes Board has okayed summer work on the Acalanes school site.

Additional parking facilities will be paved and a retaining wall will be built in the creek near the recently constructed bus housing area o nthe Acalanes campus.

A road will be constructed east of the new Las Lomas school site from the school to adjoining subdivisions to facilitate access to the Las Lomas campus.

The Acalanes board at its meeting last week also heard a progress report on construction at Las Lomas.

Construction has been stepped up to meet the completion deadline in time for the opening of school in the Fall.

F.H.A. Director To Talk at Meet

Richard W. Briggs, district director of the Federal Housing Administration, is to address the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County next Wednesday at 7 p.m. at Planters Dock, Lafayette, it is announced by Donald J. Lawrie, Lafayette builder, president of the association.

Lawrie stated that the association felt that Briggs could advise the membership of his ideas for the balance of 1951 and recommend procedures to follow to assure construction in Contra Costa County of necessary homes.

A sound slide film, "Operation Recovery," produced by the National Association of Home Builders and depicting slum clearance and redevelopment through adequate enforcement of health and safety ordinances is to be shown.

Sherman L. Balch, Walnut Creek builder, chairman of the association's industry mobilization drive, stated that he expected several new members as well as prospective members to attend.

Teachers' Course Starts on Monday

Including teachers from Alameda County and all areas of Contra Costa, approximately 200 will attend the first county summer session, which will open Monday morning at Mt. Diablo High School in Concord.

Registration will begin at 8 and will continue all morning. First classes will also be held, according to R. F. Sando, director of field services with the county superintendent's office. The latter and Mt. Diablo Unified School District are sponsors.

Director of the summer session, Jerry Disque, and instructors will be supplied by San Francisco State College, which will grant teachers credit toward bachelor of arts and education degrees.

Classes will be held every weekday from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. until August 3.

A dozen courses in the teaching of fundamentals and other subjects will be given, in addition to which a workshop will be held for high school teachers.

Seattle Seeks Walnut Creek Festival Art For Exhibit At Their Museum

Twenty-four paintings and four sculptures from the Walnut Festival's outdoor art show will be selected for exhibit at the Seattle Art Museum next January.

This was revealed today by Guernsey Ford, chairman of this year's painting exhibit being arranged for the Walnut Festival here.

"Museum officials in Seattle feel that the campaign to broaden appreciation for art that is being carried on by the Walnut Festival sponsors is outstanding, and plan to exhibit our work to aid our efforts," Ford said.

Kenneth Callahan of Seattle will come to Walnut Creek as a juror for the Festival outdoor art show. He as a nationally prominent painter and served as regional juror for the Metropolitan Museum's show of last year.

The Walnut Festival will be held September 21, 22 and 23 in the Walnut Creek City Park.

Entry blanks for this year's exhibit will be mailed early next month. The painting committee includes Mrs. Edmund S. Barnett, Mrs. Duncan Knudsen, Donne Puckle, Michael Cjaja and Mrs. Gustave Breuer.

"I have worked with many P. G. and E. customers for years. In that time I know their household rates have come down to where they're actually less today than in 1940. In the same period their use of gas and electricity has about doubled?"

—H. B. Coleman, Salinas, P. G. and E. Meter Reader

"Most everything costs more except gas and electricity...and they cost less than in 1940!"

Most everything else is up but P. G. and E. rates—which are actually lower than in 1940. Why is this possible? First, if you're an average customer, you are using nearly twice as much gas and electricity as 10 years ago. And quantity use cuts unit delivery costs. Second, alert employees and careful management work together every day to do their job better, to improve efficiency. The savings that result are passed along to you in reduced rates.

"P. G. and E. pays $601,224.00 taxes in our county, and is our largest taxpayer. Thus low-cost gas and electricity are delivered here by a company that pays its own way."

—Walter R. Tavernetti, Monterey County Assessor

"My family's use of electricity has increased tremendously in the last 10 years. We've added several appliances, improved our lighting, bought a larger refrigerator and gas heater. Yet, our monthly gas and electric bill is no more than the price of a good roast for the family."

205 Seniors Now Grads; Throng at Impressive Rites

Impressive ceremonies at Acalanes Memorial Field last Sunday afternoon officially marked the end of the school year at Acalanes High School and placed 205 Dons and Donnas — largest class in the school's history — in the ranks of graduates.

Dr. Ralph C. Hall of the Board of Trustees gave the graduates their diplomas, after presentation of the class by Neil M. Parsons superintendent and principal.

Rev. C. B. Cunningham offered the invocation, and Rev. Father Thomas F. Scahill the benediction.

Senior Class President William Jackson Babcock, Jr., welcomed the huge crowd of relatives and friends. John Eshelman Wahl and Robert Hamilton Burkett were the senior speakers.

Other portions of the program included the opening Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance," played by the high school band under direction of Oscar J. Busch; the Pledge of Allegiance, led by Anthony Harcourt Biggs; a piano solo by Janet Amanda Chantler, presentation of awards, the school hymn, sung by members of the graduating class, accompanied by the school band, and the closing "Pomp and Chivalry" by Roberts, played by the band under Busch's direction.

Special Awards Given Fifteen Acalanes Grads

Fifteen special awards and scholarships were presented to outstanding Acalanes seniors in the graduating class of 1951 at graduation ceremonies at Acalanes Sunday.

Elizabeth Bahls received a $100 C.S.F. scholarship; Ann Parker, Valarie deLaneux and Dorothy Hanawalt were each awarded $150 scholarships by the Acalanes Parents Club; Margaret Gray received a $100 Orinda Mothers art award; Christine Inman-Kane was awarded a $200 scholarship to pursue a teaching career by the Walnut Creek Kiwanis Club.

A $350 Arrighi Memorial Scholarship was awarded to Robert Slauson. LeRoy Atkinson received a $100 American Legion award; Judith Lee was given a $150 scholarship from funds donated to the school, while Peggy Gray received a scholarship from College of Arts and Crafts, Oakland.

Awards previously announced were also recognized at the graduation program. Students cited included Katherine Lyser, Juanita Velasquez, James Hall and Donald Cvietusa, the first three of whom were awarded University of California scholarships. The fourth, Don Cvietusa, was awarded an honorary scholarship.

Commuters Plan To Dine, Dance— Toss Woes Aside

Transportation problems will be shelved by the Contra Costa County Commuters Association when members gather at the Walnut Creek Veterans Memorial Building Saturday night for their annual get-acquainted party and dance.

The celebration will include a buffet supper, according to Ruth Bell and Eleanor Lister, co-chairmen for the event.

Bob McBride and his orchestra will furnish the music for dancing. Entertainment will include a Commuter's Choral group and songs by the Orinda Barbershop Quartet.

Theater School Ready for Children

Fun of self expression for youngsters will be one of the summer advantages offered by Mrs. Grace Petitclerc who announces a start of Walnut Creek classes in creative enterprise on the stage.

Mrs. Petitclerc taught at the Glenn Taylor school during the past year and was formerly with the Seattle Little Theater group and at San Jose State College.

Her Walnut Creek classes will open next Tuesday and continue each Tuesday and Thursday. Each class will be limited to 10 children. Tots from 5 to 9 years of age will be taught from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and boys and girls from 10 to 13 years will attend 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The classes will probably be held in the Walnut Creek Grammar School, although definite information must be obtained by telephoning Mrs. Petitclerc at Walnut Creek 9293.

At the close of the classes in August the students will present a three-act play at the Walnut Festival Recreation Center in the City Park with proceeds going toward Youth Center work.

American Trust Co. To Close Saturdays

American Trust Company in Orinda, along with all other branches of the bank, will be closed Saturdays beginning July 7. Friday banking hours, however, will be extended.

The Central Bank in Lafayette will remain open Saturdays, 10 a.m. to noon.

Hearing Set for Next Wednesday On Rheem Glen

Next phase of the battle over Rheem Glen, 13-lot subdivision at Rheem Boulevard and St. Mary's Road ,is set for 10 a.m. next Wednesday before the Board of Supervisors in Martinez.

The board on Monday set that time for a public hearing on the appeal of the Moraga Company and Donald L. Rheem from the Planning Commission's rejection of the map for the subdivision. The planners last week disapproved the map because of reported slide conditions.

Notice of appeal was received by the supervisors from Attorney Gordon W. Mallatratt of San Francisco, representing the Moraga Company and Rheem.

Planning Commission disapproval was by a 7-2 vote, with Commissioners John Stoffel and Arthur Young voting against disapproval.

The Rheem Glen controversy has been marked by conflicting reports of geologists on the area's slide potential.

W. Dort, Stanford University geologist hired by the county, stated that in his opinion slide conditions made it unwise to build upon much of the land.

But Chester Marliave, geologist hired by Wilson and Company, engineering firm for Rheem, declared he believed it was safe to build on most of Rheem Glen.

U. S. CIVIL SERVICE JOBS

The United States Civil Service Commission announces an examination for photographer, microphotographer, photostat operator, blueprint operator, blueprint and photostat operator and photo-reproduction trainee, for employment in various federal agencies in Washington, D. C., and vicinity.

What with 'Graduates,' New Officers, Orinda Nursery School's Set for Fall

Following last week's "graduation" ceremonies, Orinda Nursery School takes a "breather" for the Summer.

Come next fall, the cooperative venture will be all set for another year of jubilant childhood and understanding adult guidance.

THE DIPLOMA - CLIMAXING program June 13 at the nursery school at Orinda Community church, for some 70 Orinda and Lafayette youngsters who will be ready for regular school kindergarten in the Fall, included the handing of the gavel to Mrs. James R. Seaman, 1951-52 president, by Mrs. E. J. Unduh, outgoing president.

The adults had their "inning," too, Wednesday afternoon of this week, when a tea for outgoing and new officers was given at the home of Mrs. Unruh on La Campana.

IN ADDITION TO Mrs. Seaman, 1951-52 administrative officers of the Orinda Nursery School Association, Inc., are:

Mrs. Miles Sutliffe, vice-president and program chairman; Mrs. J. H. Van Sicklen, secretary; Mrs. W. C. Riddell, treasurer; Mesdames P. K. Farrington, R. J. Bettencourt and J. J. Buchter, representatives; Mrs. Unruh, honorary member.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN are Mrs. Hugh Lowther, maintenance; Mrs. C. F. Lohse, publicity; Mrs. William Longhurst, membership, Monday, Wednesday, Friday; Mrs. Robert Kleyn - Schoorel, membership, Tuesday, Thursday; Mrs. C. C. Cutting and Mrs. Sam Schaaf, parent participation; Mrs. G. F. Shank, telephone; Mrs. Paul L. Pollaczek, purchasing.

Parents wishing to register children for Nursery School should contact Mrs. William Longhurst or Mrs. Robert Kleyn-Schoorel.

Kasten to Talk On Contemporary Painting Trends

The June meeting of the Diablo Art Association will be held at the Coast Counties Gas Company's building in Walnut Creek next Tuesday evening at 8.

Speaker will be the distinguished artist, Karl Kasten, who will discuss contemporary trends in painting. He will show slides of paintings by Bay Area artists including a few of his own.

Kasten, who has taught at the University of Michigan and San Francisco State College, is now instructor in abstract painting and etching at the University of California at Berkeley. He has exhibited extensively at the San Francisco Museum, the Chicago Art Institute and in Detroit and has won numerous awards and prizes.

Diablo Art Association-sponsored lectures will continue throughout the summer and are open to the public.

Judge Murphy Heads Hanna Center Board

Archbishop John J. Mitty recently announced appointed of Oakland Municipal Judge Joseph A. Murphy as chairman of the board of the Hanna Center for Boys at Sonoma. Judge Murphy succeeds Daniel V. Flanagan of San Francisco, who is moving to Washington, D. C.

Contra Costa County members of the Hanna Center board include Thomas J. Moran, Lafayette; Robert Reid, Richmond, and Judge Hugh H. Donovan, Pittsburg.

Jewish Women's Group to Install At June 30 Party

Installation of officers will highlight a "get into the swim" party, first social event sponsored by the new League of Jewish Women, to be held on June 30 at the home of Mrs. Joseph Scherman on Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek.

The informal affair for members and prospective members and their families will feature swimming, dancing, entertainment and refreshments, with guests supplying their own box suppers.

Members of the League's social committee, which is completing plans for the party, are Mesdames Henry Brodsky, chairman; Sam Wiseman, Bernard Kaplan, Gerald Hoytt, M. Wallin and J. Deutcher.

To be installed are Mrs. Robert F. Robinson, president; Mrs. Louis Davis, vice-president; Mrs. Claude A. Waldo, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harry S. Schwartz, recording secretary; Mrs. David Zuckerman, treasurer.

Other committee chairmen will be Mrs. Percy E. Cohn, ways and means; Mrs. Lewis S. Rapport, Sunday school; Mrs. Arthur Weisberg, membership and welcoming; Mrs. Martin Abel, workshop, and Mrs. H. W. Stolmack, publicity.

RIFLE CHAMPIONSHIPS

For the first time since 1940 a full program of National Rifle and Pistol Championships, including .30 Caliber Championships, will be held in California September 28 to October 6. The National .30 Caliber Championships will be fired at Camp Mathews, San Diego, Sept. 28 to 30. The National Pistol and Smallbore Rifle Championships will be staged in San Francisco. The pistol title-race will take place September 29 to October 6, and the small-bore rifles will crack Octozer 3 to 6.

Iretons at Lazy K; Kergan Family in Walnut Creek, Tokio

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ireton and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gertz, recently moved into the Lazy K. Rancho on Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

The Ralph M. Kergans formerly lived in the place, but their new home in Walnut Creek was recently completed. Mrs. Kergan and her two young sons, Jerry and Jimmie, now live in the new home, while Lieutenant Ralph M. Kergan, recalled to military duty, is headquartered in Tokyo.

Health Officials Talk of Tightening Building Codes in Agricultural Zones

Representatives of farm groups throughout the county met last week with County Health Department officials to discuss proposed tightening of building regulations for agriculturally zoned land.

At present all construction on agricultural land is exempted from the County Building Code.

But Dr. H. L. Blum, county health officer, and Rudolph Kraintz, county building inspector, have suggested requiring residential construction on such land to come under the code.

Fear was expressed by Dr. Blum that failure to have this requirement might result in faulty placing of septic tanks.

Meanwhile, referred back to the Planning Commission by the Board of Supervisors, for further study, is proposed revision of zoning regulations for agricultural land. The planners have recommended that the amount of such land which can be disposed of by a farm owner for residential construction be increased from a quarter-acre to a half-acre.

NEED FOR FOSTER HOMES

Hope that "more people will take advantage of the opportunity for community service and personal satisfaction by providing homes for unfortunate children" is expressed in his annual report by County Probation Officer John A. Davis.

Stating that suitable homes for teen-agers during the past year "continued to be scarce in the county," Davis declared:

"Rural living, while generally beneficial for teen-age boys, is not necessarily attractive or beneficial to girls, and the chief problem, then, is finding homes for teen-age girls."

Davis cited completion and occupancy of the new Juvenile Hall as the outstanding accomplishment of the past year.

APPEAL FROM WAGE ADJUSTMENTS

Appeal from wage adjustments granted by the Board of Supervisors in the new salary ordinance has been filed by Superintendent E. A. Lawrence in behalf of Buildings Department employees.

"We believe we can prove that adjustments made are not in line and are far below prevailing wages for the type of work performed," Lawrence said.

ASK PROTECTION FOR INDUSTRY ZONES

Supervisors are reviewing with interest cautions voiced by county industrialists that factory locations in the county may be stymied if full cooperation is not extended in protection of industrial zones against residential encroachment.

Four members of the board met with 35 industrialists at the Willows at a dinner session of the industrial committee of the Contra Costa Development Association and heard industrial leaders warn that industries seeking locations will not consider the county without assurance that the areas will be protected against residential development.

Board of Supervisors members present included Chairman H. L. Cummings, Ray Taylor, Warren G. Buchanan and Jake Frederickson.

The industrialists adopted a resolution requesting the board to devote special study to all applications for residential development in industrial zones.

Cap Sandford Sez:

DOGS AND THEIR OWNERS are the subject of this batch of words.

Before starting, let it be clearly understood that I love dogs perhaps as much as any living man.

But that does not make me enjoy having someone's dog dashing up at me, jumping on my clean clothes, tramping over my feet and licking my face, or suddenly dashing out snarling at my horse when I am riding.

THEN THERE IS THE DOG that howls and whines all day and night. And there is the dog that forms a band of dogs and heads for the hills and runs cattle.

People who own dogs have accepted a very grave responsibility, and instead of just throwing them out on the world they should train them properly.

HO HUM, I DO NOT FEEL SO GOOD today and I am naturally very bright, anyhow, so I think I will gather a few other bums together and go for a cruise on the Potomas in my yacht

Two Injured as Car Crashes at Canyon Culvert

Early Sunday morning, on Pinehurst Road near Canyon School, the steering mechanism snapped on the car in which Mr. and Mrs. Bud Mickele of Canyon were riding.

The car went crashing into a stone culvert guard, turned over and completely around, coming to rest facing the opposite direction from that in which it had been going.

Paul Foster, a nearby resident, awakened by the car's horn blowing, was first at the scene of the accident. He rushed the Mickeles to Permanente Hospital, where Mrs. Mickele was treated for minor cuts and bruises. Mickele suffered from a concussion, and six stitches were necessary in his forehead. Both were released from the hospital.

In the meantime, before a wrecking car could be summoned, one of those "meanest thieves in the world" stopped by the car to remove three wheels.

A new car was rammed recently when it was parked for the Canyon dance, bashing in the door on the driver's side.

Quite a few complaints have been turned in lately regarding parked cars being broken into, also gas being siphoned from tanks.

Coast Counties Asks OK of Plan To Buy Pipelines

G. H. Conner, Walnut Creek district manager for the Coast Counties Gas and Electric Company, announced today that the company has filed application with the State Public Utilities Commission for authority to acquire the facilities of pipeline subsidiary companies of Pacific Public Service Company.

Coast Counties also requested a certificate of public convenience and necessity from the P.U.C., to enable it to operate and maintain these facilities.

According to Conner, acquisition of this property would enable Coast Counties to purchase natural gas from producers in Kettleman Hills, Rio Vista, Moffett and other gas fields and to deliver the gas through its own services.

Mt. Diablo PTA Council Meets

Mt. Diablo Council of P.T.A. met recently in the new Recreation Building in Walnut Creek.

It was the first meeting for Mrs. Elliott Mauzy as president.

It was suggested that the council send a gift of money to the National Council of P.T.A., to be used in erection of a national headquarters building in Chicago.

Mt. Diablo Council has a membership of 7,000.

Mrs. Clark Rucker of Lafayette conducted a discussion on the advisability of having a course in P.T.A. leadership training in each unit.

She cited the valuable results of such a course in Lafayette.

The beautifully equipped kitchen of the Recreation Building was used for the first time on this day. Mrs. Mauzy reminded the group of the active part the P.T.A. units in this district have played in the realization of this splendid community building.

Next meeting of Mt. Diablo Council will be held in September.

Children Flood Festival Art Show With Scores of Entries; More Coming

More than 200 pictures and pieces of art will be exhibited in the Walnut Festival Art Show by children alone, it was revealed today by John Horns, art chairman of the Outdoor Art Shows who sponsor the exhibit.

The art exhibit will be held with the Walnut Festival September 21, 22 and 23 at the Walnut Creek City Park.

Hundreds of entries in the Children's Division were turned in last week. Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda and Concord were responsible for the bulk of entries, according to Horns.

Danville, Alamo and Martinez students are asked to prepare pictures for entry during the first week of school in September.

Most of the visual arts will be represented in the exhibit. Mrs. Peter Howard of Walnut Creek is co-chairman of the show with Horns.

President of the Cooperative Art Association is Mrs. Doris Jellett of Lafayette.

Sacramento Report

Legislature Almost Ready to Adjourn; $1,035,000,000 Budget Biggest Item

By ASSEMBLYMAN
ROBERT L. CONDON

BY THE TIME THIS is read, the Legislature will be almost ready for adjournment. So this will be the last of this regular series of reports. Hereafter, the reports will be issued on an intermittent basis as newsworthy interim legislative happenings occur.

On the whole, the session was not too productive. Positive steps were taken in the fields of civilian defense, court reform and recodification of existing law. The child care centers were continued, but on a curtailed basis.

The $50,000,000 school apportionment bill was killed, but the schools were given some additional funds. Workmen's Compensation and Disability Insurance payments were increased $5 per week, but the program for aid to the totally disabled was defeated.

A Crime Commission with subpoena powers was created.

Other highlights of the closing days of the Legislature include the budget, the loyalty issue at the University of California and the Financial Responsibility Law.

THE BUDGET: The biggest item of the session went through the Assembly, and the Governor quickly signed it. It was the budget of approximately $1,035,000,000 to carry the state through the coming year.

No new taxes were levied at the session. Growing California, because of its increasing population and wealth, will support the budget with present revenues. In fact, there may be a surplus.

Here is where some of your money will go after the state receives it.

Civil defense will get about $12,000,000, education about $300,000,000, social welfare about $155,000,000, capital outlay for buildings and equipment about $140,000,000.

Operating expenses, the expenses that keep the highway patrol going and the social welfare department and this Legislature, among others, about $300,000,000.

Incidentally, the fixed charges — the ones we cannot alter, cut or increase — amount to some $600,000,000, or well over half of the budget. Things like some education monies, aid to the needy blind, and others are known as fixed charges.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA: The Assembly Education Committee — one of the largest committees — gave a unanimous vote of confidence to the University of California.

It expressed complete confidence in the loyalty and competence of the faculty and the administration.

Previously, a Senate committee said it believed the state's own university was the hotbed of communist organizers and the like.

That no such charges can be substantiated was the gist of the Education Committee's vote.

AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE: A Senate committee tabled a bill which would have made automobile insurance compulsory in California.

Under our present financial insurance law, if an accident occurs and there is no insurance, the operator's driver's license usually is revoked.

The author of the compulsory bill claimed that the present financial responsibility law "gave the dog the first bite," since responsibility is not required until after an accident.

MISCELLANY: The Senate killed a bill which would have outlawed picketing on an organizational basis by labor unions . . . Sex crimes will call for much more drastic penalties, including, in some cases, life imprisonment without possibility of parole.

Narcotic violators will also face tougher sentences upon conviction.

An assemblyman introduced and had approved 56 to 3 a resolution asking Congress to pass a new Fair Trade Law. The Fair Trade laws were placed in doubt by a United States Supreme Court decision.

Radio 'Hams' Plan Mt. Diablo Tests

Contra Costa County's amateur radio operators will have a field day on Mt. Diablo this weekend .

Under the sponsorship of the Mt. Diablo Amateur Radio Club the "ham" operators will make field tests on a 24-hour basis for emergency training.

President Dick Wallace of Concord and Jack Tait of Walnut Creek are in charge of registration and urge all licensed amateur radio operators to participate in the emergency trials whether members of the club or not.

Wallace estimates more than half of the clubs' membership of 65 will turn out. They will camp at Camp Muir from 5 p.m. Saturday until 5 p.m. Sunday.

Power generators will be used for operation of the various CW rigs and two-way telephone equipment. It will require 14 operators to man the equipment adequately during two to three-hour periods.

Wallace estimates there are 200 amateur radio operators in Contra Costa County alone.

Attention, Girls! You Can Camp at Butte Meadows

An opportunity for girls who do not belong to the Girl Scout or other youth activity groups to attend summer camp is offered in a 1951 Every Girl's Camp sponsored by Mt. Lassen Area Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The camp, open to any girl from 9 to 17, is at Butte Meadows, 40 miles from Chico on Deer Creek Highway 32, from August 20 to September 1.

Girls from Lafayette or Orinda will be entitled to take part for a fee of $27 covering the camping period, but must pay for their own transportation there and back.

Mrs. Ethel Lopez, well-known in this area as an experienced girls' leader, is in personal charge of the camp. Activities include outdoor camping, arts and crafts, hiking, dramatics, singing, swimming, boating and evening campfires.

Trained counselors oversee the girls' activities. Camp reservations may be made by writing Girls' Camp, 130 W. 2nd Street, Chico, where additional information may also be obtained.

IF YOU ARE still wondering what kind of retaining wall to build before next fall and winter, let Diamond K help you with your planning.

BASALT BLOCKS are probably the most effective from a standpoint of good looks and for a neat good looking job there is none finer. Basalite blocks are laid up like bricks in mortar and come in an assortment of sizes and shapes. Stop by and let us give you an idea or two on basalt construction.

For the rugged, sturdy look as well as effectiveness there is nothing better than railroad ties.

The railroad ties we have now are all like new, pressure creosoted and absolutely rot-free. For a retaining wall, fence posts, or walk borders that will last forever, don't miss getting in on these ties. Come in and look them over.

GRAPESTAKES ARE still more or less on the unavailable list or at least on the hard to get list. However, through careful buying and a lot of hard work we now have a very fine selection. Especially in six-foot lengths.

We have about three thousand select 6 footers in stock now and they are all of highest quality.

So, before you build any fence or wall, come into Diamond K and look around. I'm sure that we can help you in your planning.

If Uncle Sam Is Breathing on Your Neck—Read This

Men who have taken their Selective Service physical examination but have not yet been ordered by their local draft board to report for induction may now enlist in the United States Air Force or one of the selected branches of the Regular Army.

Sgt. Wendell Schwartz of the Army and Air Force Recruiting Service in Walnut Creek made the announcement today in pointing out that this is a special opportunity not previously offered. The offer expires July 15.

Men who have had pre-induction physicals previously, or might after this period, will not be permitted to choose their branch of service.

Mills Alumnae Plan Picnic, Hear Talk

About 30 persons attended the recent meeting of the Mills College Alumnae group at the home of Mrs. Peter Howard on Walnut Boulevard to hear Dr. George Hedley, professor of sociology and economics and Mills College chaplain since 1940, speak on "Superstition of the Irreligious," based on his studies on his latest and soon-to-be released book.

Plans were formulated for a picnic for members of the Alumnae Association and their families sometime in August.

Dr. and Mrs. Hedley and officers of the group, Mrs. J. B. Herod, Mrs. Lawrence Green and Mrs. Francis Murphy were dinner guests previous to the meeting at the home of Mrs. George Coblentz Jr., secretary.

Crime Probers to Have New Power

When the new California commission on organized crime starts its studies, it will have power which the previous crime commission lacked — the power to call in reluctant witnesses and make them talk.

This authorization is contained in a new state law.

Although commission members had not yet been appointed, Governor Earl Warren in a recent radio address declared that the new commission "will have plenty to do." He said that if things go right the commission will be able to start its probes late this summer.

Regarding the subpoena power Warren explained:

"My purpose . . . was merely to facilitate the gathering of information about the activities of gangsters and crooks and no one else."

3 New Roses All-American Winners—Helen Traubel, Vogue and Fred Howard

By BERT WRIGHT

ROSEDOM'S TOP HONOR, an All-American Award for 1952, goes to the new rose, Helen Traubel, named in honor of the famous Metropolitan Opera star.

According to J. Awdry Armstrong, head of Armstrong Nurseries, which developed this latest All-American selection, it has a distinctive color, varying with the weather, from warm sparkling pink to luminous apricot.

At all times there is a bright, rich undertone which literally makes the flower sparkle. The large buds are long and tapering and they open into unusually attractive large, fragrant flowers. The plant is free bloming and vigorous with abundant and attractive foliage.

Like many other Armstrong All-American winners, this is an origination of Herbert C. Swim.

OTHER ROSES SELECTED for 1952 by the All-American Rose Selections are Vogue, a floribunda, introduced by Jackson and Perkins, and Fred Howard, a hybrid tea, introduced by Howard and Smith of Montebello, California.

The blooms of Vogue are a brilliant cherry coral. Individual flowers, three to three and a half inches in diameter, are high centered and of perfect hybrid form.

Vogue is a prolific bloomer and has a subtle, spicelike scent, and the dark green foliage is said to be particularly resistant to common rose diseases. Vogue has already won several prizes abroad, including the gold medal at Geneva and the Bagatelle gold medal at Paris.

Fred Howard, with its long, rich yellow buds delicately penciled at the tips with a soft pink, is one of the last roses produced by the rosarian whose name it bears.

Blooms are born on long, sturdy stems, and the open flower is perfectly formed, fully double, with a high center. The foliage is dark and shiny on full branches.

SELECT VARIETIES of roses best adapted to your locality. That's the advice of all rose enthusiasts.

To help gardeners make the proper choices, a new leaflet called "1951 Guide for Buying Roses" has just been published by the American Rose Society.

CERTAIN VARIETIES are much more vigorous and productive than others, so choose those that have high national ratings. They are the roses that reporters from all over the country have considered "tops" as a result of tests in their home gardens.

The 1951 Guide gives the ratings of all varieties commonly available in the trade and is arranged to make checking easy.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT feature of the leaflet is the color classification for each variety. This will be of great assistance to those who want to plant their roses to make the most pleasing and effective color combinations.

Each variety is designated in one of 14 basic color groups so that gradations from one hue to another, as well as other types of color harmony, may easily be obtained.

FOR THOSE PLANNING rose shows, this color classification will be particularly helpful in preparing the schedule.

Also, it will enable exhibitors to enter their specimens in the proper classes without difficulty.

Copies of the "Guide for Buying Roses" are available without charge from the American Rose Society, Harrisburg, Pa.

Summer Schedule At Our Savior's

Our avior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette is now on its summer schedule. Two identical services are held each Sunday morning at 8 and 10:45.

The Sunday School will not meet again until September.

This Sunday morning Pastor Luther Berven will speak on the sermon topic, "God Has Given His Word." The text is Isaiah 55:10-11 and reads:

"For as the rain cometh down and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, and giveth seed to the sower and bread to the eater; so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it."

Dr. Lawrence tavig, president of the National Lutheran Council, which includes more than 4,000,000 Lutherans in its membership, will preach at Our Savior's Church on Sunday morning, July 1.

PLANS FOR ST. STEPHEN'S Episcopal Church will be discussed next Thursday night when the Rt. Rev. Karl Morgan Block, Bishop of California, will have dinner with St. Stephen's members and friends at the home of the William Sparlings. Here Bishop Block (seated at right) is shown with some of the local group which is collaborating with him on plans for a new church. Seated next to him is Mrs. Paul Slattery. Standing, left to right, are Mrs. Clinton Easterbrook, Walter Christie, Mrs. Robert Moorehead, Mrs. William Sparling, Rev. John Geene, who was the first rector at St. Stephen's, and Mrs. Seaver Ballard. The picture was taken when Bishop Block visited Orinda last week.

Bishop Block at Dinner Here Next Thursday Evening

The look of anticipation on the faces of so many this week is explained by the exciting news that the Rt. Rev. Karl Morgan Block, Bishop of California, has set next Thursday night as the evening he is to have dinner with his fast-growing Orinda flock of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

The affair will be held at 6:30 at the home of the William Sparlings, 9 Highland Court.

Following dinner, Bishop Block will give an informal talk and tell of his extensive plans for this area. He is a nationally known figure, not only in the field of religion, but in all fields involving human rights, privileges and responsibilities.

He has recently returned from Washington, D. C., where he served on the Nimitz civil liberty committee.

Mrs. Paul F. Booth, in charge of the dinner, states that a large group is expected and urges all friends of St. Stephen's in this area to make reservations early by calling Orinda 8077 .

St. Stephen's In New Location

Starting this Sunday, services for St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda will be held in its new location on Brookwood Road, just around the corner from the Orinda Theater and two doors east of the new postoffice.

St. Stephen's wishes to take this opportunity to publicly thank Donald L. Rheem for the temporary use of these quarters.

Services for the duration of the summer will be held at 9:30 a.m.

At a committee meeting of the Women's Auxiliary heads Monday, a delegation was appointed to tour Bay Area Episcopal churches with the view to determining the type of architecture to be used in the new St. Stephen's Church.

Delegates are Mesdames H. S. Doane, William David Coleman, William C. Hagens, H. W. Pillsbury, William H. Shipley, Sayer Snook, William A. Sparling and Ida B. Zamloch.

The tour will start at 9 a.m. next Monday from Orinda Crossroads.

Mrs. Paul F. Booth was the unanimous choice of the group to take charge of the Bishop's Dinner scheduled for next Thursday.

It is with great regret that St. Stephen's announces the loss of one of our Women's Auxiliary, Treasurer Mrs. Seaver A. Ballard.

The Ballard family is leaving August 1 to spend a year in Holland. They will be missed, but best wishes for an exciting year abroad go with them.

Cousin Arrives From Korea War

Realities of the Korean war were brought closer to home for Mr. and Mrs. John Klass of Happy Valley recently with the arrival here of their cousin, Warrant Officer Milton Peterson.

Peterson is on "replacement leave" after a year in the Korean battle zone. He was heading for his home in Washington state, where he was to see his baby for the first time.

Graduation Lunch

Ellen Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Johnston of Sleepy Hollow Lane, celebrated her graduation from Acalanes High School last week at a picnic luncheon. Her 14 guests had an enjoyable day swimming and playing ping pong at the lovely Burkett home on Ranch Road.

Guests invited were Barbara Bennetts, Daryl Broderick, Margaret Connell, Ann Hawkesworth, Jacqueline Holmes, Dorothy Johnson, Joan Lorentzen, Meade Milisich, Nancie Morris, Jane Ponting, Margaret Probert, Patricia Scholin, Ann Summers and Margaret Zamloch.

Lafayette Sea Scouts Cruise

The Lafayette Sea Scout Troop cruised to Berkeley Yacht Harbor last Sunday night to pick up their sailboat which they towed back to their home port on Monday.

The boys left Martinez at 10 p.m., aboard the S.S.S. Sea Wolf, arriving in Berkeley at 5 a.m.

The troop has been increasingly active with advent of warmer weather and the boating season. In March, they cruised to Stockton and several weeks ago they took part in a regatta in Carquinez Straits off Crockett.

ONE PROSPECTIVE trip, known as a "Fluff Cruise," when troop members ask their dates to go along, is anticipated for July. Jim Potts is chairman for the day, with a cruise and swimming party planned. Adult leaders accompany the Sea Scouts and supervise the meetings held each Tuesday at Mission Covenant Church, 7:30 p.m.

This advanced sea-going branch of the Boy Scouts is open to all boys between 14 and 17. Besides their cruises and duties in keeping their boats ship-shape, the troop studies all details of seamanship, including knot tying, tides, currents and signals.

BOYS ARE WELCOME to attend the meetings and to join the troop.

Those who took part in last weekend's cruise were First Mate Pat Quill; Officer of the Deck Jerry Ball; Crew Leader No. 1 Jerry Mandel; Acting Crew Leader No. 2 Bob Curtis; Lee Shoptaugh, Bob Massoni, Dwight Townsend, Jerry Taylor and Bill Finn.

Cpl. Vielbaum At Camp Cooke

Corporal Albert Vielbaum, an apprentice in the mechanical department of the SUN is at Camp Cooke in Southern California for the annual two-week training period of the National Guard.

Vielbaum, who lives at 1962 Dora Street, Walnut Creek, left for camp last Saturday. He is a member of Company C, 159th Infantry, 49th Division of the National Guard.

Cornwall Named Secretary Flood Control Group

With Tomas Vanasek of Ygnacio Valley as chairman and Neill C. Cornwall of Lafayette as secretary, the advisory committee of the recently established Central Contra Costa Emergency Flood Control District is starting its work with county officials.

That work, it has been indicated by the Board of Supervisors, will be mainly of an advisory nature. Governing body of the flood district is the Board of Supervisors.

Hiring of a consulting engineer was considered as a "must" first step by the county as its representatives met with the seven-member advisory group. A meeting on this subject by the committee and Supervisors Jack Cummings and Ray Taylor at Walnut Creek City Hall was held Monday afternoon.

Cummings and Taylor, in whose supervisorial districts the 100,000-acre flood district lies, and County Surveyor Joseph Barkley met with the advisory group last weekend in Walnut Creek. It was at this meeting that Vanasek and Cornwall were named advisory chairman and secretary, respectively.

At that session, Barkley presented a map and stated he believed the first emergency work of the flood district should consist principally of clearing out channels from the Upper Bay back down the valley to a point near Monument Boulevard.

I'm Frank ...

I'M FRANK

when I say that Orinda is very fortunate to have such an efficient Fire Department. As long as I have lived in Orinda (and, boy, that's a long time!) I have never known of a major fire. Some people might say you'd better knock on wood because that is just luck. Well, it's not all luck.

When you consider the tremendous area that our Fire Department has to cover, from the top of El Toyonal to Moraga Del Rey, you can realize that they have to be on their toes all of the time. If you haven't had a visit from them in regard to inspection of your property for fire hazards, you can expect one some day, because I know that they work diligently on this subject. Also, be sure to get a fire permit yourself before burning rubbish around your home.

It was quite some time before Orinda Hardware could find a suitable trash burner that our Fire Department would let us sell. There were many models that we thought were O.K. but, after we purchased them, our Fire Chief pointed out their faults and we had to dispose of them, until we finally were able to find one that met the requirements necessary.

In case you are interested, we do now have a fine, sturdy trash burner that is approved by the Fire Department, and will last about ten years before it will burn out. However, even though you use this trash burner, or any other one you might have, you still have to get a permit from the Fire Department.

Remember, if you do cause a fire because of a faulty trash burner, and you do not have a permit, you will really be in trouble. Your neighbors are just as concerned as your Fire Department that you don't start fires because of carelessness.

Many major fires are caused in homes because a very small fire couldn't be put out immediately. So often a small fire will start in the kitchen or the garage and, while the person responsible is running around trying to find a bucket of water, the fire has grown to such proportions that is is impossible for one person to put it out.

Now, if you have a box of "Hero" fire extinguishers (there are three in a box, and sell for $3.80) you can put one in the kitchen, one in the garage, and one at the other end of the house and, should a small fire occur, it would only take a few seconds to reach an extinguisher for it. We always remember that we should have bought a fire extinguisher after the fire is over.

Perhaps a lot of Orindans are not aware of the fact that there is a County ordinance to the effect that it is unlawful to possess fire works of any kind. To many of us, this may appear unjust to our kids, because we had fire works when we were kids, and that is one of the pleasures of childhood, to be able to shoot off fire works on the Fourth of July.

Well, our Fire Department has enough to do now checking up on Orinda without having to track down everyone who wants to have fire works. All you have to do is look at all of the dry fields around you and think of the terrible consequences should one of your fire crackers start it burning and the wind carry the flames beyond control. Maybe you can afford a new house, furniture, etc., but perhaps your neighbor can't.

Yes, when I say let's co-operate with our Fire Department because they have and are doing a swell job

Super-Saver Rifled Of Cigarettes, Cases of Liquor

Indications that a well-organized, "professional" gang of burglars is methodically preying on food markets in Lafayette and disposing of the loot to an illegal middleman, or "fence," were seen this week.

Theft from the Super-Saver Market early Wednesday morning of some 25 cases of bonded whiskey valued at about $1,500, a half-dozen cases of cigarettes containing 248 cartons, and $106 in change were the latest sign of possibly systematic, carefully planned operations by the crooks, Inspector Norman Wilson of the sheriff's office said.

The Super-Saver burglary followed by nine days the latest burglarizing of the Lafayette Food Center, in which between $200 and $300 was stolen. Inspector Wilson said that the thieves there had apparently been "scared away" from the liquor department.

A little over a week before that, the Food Center was burglarized of about $2.50 taken from cash registers in the grocery and meat departments.

A FEW MONTHS AGO burglars broke into the Food Center and confined their "haul" to a couple of hundred cartons of cigarettes.

"While we have no definite information that one group is committing these burglaries, in my opinion there is a certain similarity that shows the possibility of planned operation," the inspector said.

The inspector recalled that a market was burglarized in Pittsburg a couple of months ago in the same general manner.

"THIS COULD BE the same gang that committed the Pittsburg burglary," Wilson pointed out.

Owner Harold B. Levy of the Super-Saver Market reported that the thieves broke into his store by removing an iron bar from the outside of a rest room door at the back and left by opening the same door from the inside.

DISCOVERY OF THE break-in was made by Patrolman Dick Kilgore of the Contra Costa Patrol some time after 1:30 a.m., according to Levy.

"We have a safe in the front window, which we leave unobstructed so that the patrol can get a good view of it," Levy said. "When the patrol went by at 1:30 a.m. everything was clear. On the next round of the patrol, though, two sacks of charcoal had been crossed in front of the safe."

Most of the store currency, which was in the inner double-locked part of the opened safe, was untouched.

The market owner said that the burglars took only straight bonded whiskey and standard brands of cigarettes.

"THAT AND THE FACT that the 'job' was so neatly done, with no disarrangement of anything the burglars didn't take, convinces me that they're a well-trained and organized gang, picking certain items for a fast turnover of merchandise to a 'fence'," Levy declared.

To block further break-in attempts, Levy said he is placing a cross bar outside the back door, at right angle to the first bar, and electric lights on the loading platform at the rear, which will remain turned on all night.

Christian Science Topic: Atom Force?

Among the Bible citations included in the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday, June 24, there will be the following verses from the twenty-seventh Psalm:

"The Lord is my light and my selvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident. I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living."

This Lesson-Sermon, the subject of which will be "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" will also include correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, one of which will read:

"Neither philosophy nor skepticism can hinder the march of the Science which reveals the supremacy of Mind. The immanent sense of Mind-power enhances the glory of Mind. Nearness, not distances, lends enchantment to this view (p. 209).

NEW 'SHIPSTAD'

A juvenile counterpart of Roy Shipstad, one of the producers of the "Ice Follies" and a favorite performer for many years, is a new feature of "Ice Follies of 1951" now playing at Winterland. The new "Shipstad" is 15-year-old Richard Dwyer, runner-up to Olympic Games figure skating champion Dick Button in last year's nationals.

Hendrickson, McDonald Purchase Orinda Motors

New owners of Orinda Motors Garage and Service Station are Jim Hendrickson and Marsden McDonald, who purchased the business from Al Eberlin.

Hendrickson, from Oakland, and McDonald, from Alameda, are looking for homes in this area.

The new owners are retaining the employees who worked for Eberlin. They have plans for some modernizing in equipment and appearance of the place.

INFORMATION SPECIALIST

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced examinations for making indefinite appointments to the position of information specialist in the various federal agencies throughout California, Arizona and Nevada. Salaries range from $4600 to $6400 a year.

10 A.M. Sermon on Fellow Travelers

"Fellow-Travelers" is the subject of Rev. Fred Morrow's second summer service at Orinda Community Church Sunday morning at 10.

Boys and girls of the Junior Department will worship with the congregation for the first half hour, during which a story will be given for their benefit. Following the period in the church service, they adjourn to their classes.

During June the choir continues its participation in the service, singing this week under the direction of Mrs. Popovich, with Dorothy Turk at the organ.

The joint church and Sunday school schedule at 10 o'clock will continue until the opening of school in the Fall.

Seafarers to 'Sail' To Camp Padre Picnic

There will be no Seafarers meeting tonight.

Instead, members are urged to attend the Orinda Community Church picnic for children and adults at Camp Padre, Tilden Park, tomorrow from 2 p.m. through basket supper time.

Pete Olsen Eastbound

Pete Olsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olsen, is leaving Sunday via T.W.A. for a month's vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olsen, Sr., and Mrs. Irma Jefferson, at Westwood, N. J.

He will drive back with the Olsens, Sr., and they will then visit here for several weeks.

FAIR'S CONTRA COSTA DAY

August 31 has been set as Supervisors' Day and September 1 as Contra Costa Day at the California State Fair by the state fair committee of the Contra Costa Development Association.

Shop at home — and save.

Double Feature: Work Day, Picnic

Orinda Community Church people are celebrating the start of summer vacation with a "double feature" tomorrow, opening with a work day for men and older boys at 9 a.m. on the church grounds and continuing with a family picnic in the afternoon at Camp Padre in Tilden Park.

William Penn Mott will direct the planting of more trees and shrubs around the church hall, a project which trustees say must be completed this week in order to take advantage of a growing year.

Workers are being asked to bring shovels, picks or wheelbarrows. Considerable planting has been done in previous work days on the property.

Games, races and contests, with prizes for boys and girls of various ages, will make the afternoon interesting for the other members of the family at Camp Padre, where they will be joined by the men later in the afternoon.

Basket suppers are to be brought by the families, but ice cream and coffee are being made available by the committee. Barbecue facilities are also on hand. A baseball game and community sing will wind up the festivities.

The picnic is planned for all the boys and girls of the Sunday School and their families, church members, attendants and friends, and any family who wants to get acquainted.

Al Styles is committee chairman and Stanley Hunn will have charge of the games and races.

School's-End Party

Beth Pickton, daughter of Captain and Mrs. W. H. Pickton of Sleepy Hollow Lane, invited a group of her schoolmates at Acalanes to a party last Friday night in celebration of the end of the school year. The young people enjoyed dancing and swimming and delicious refreshments at the Pickton home.

Tiny's Face Merchants

Lots More Action On Park Diamond

It finally happens!

Climax of Walnut Creek Softball League's first half of play arrives this evening when the Walnut Creek Merchants tangle with Tiny's Hut in the night's second game.

The winner will hold a definite edge for first half honors.

At this writing the two nines are tied for first place honors with both clubs boasting a four win, no loss record.

The play to date has found fans equally divided as to which team is the better. In five games (counting Guard play) the Merchants have crossed home plate 48 times while limiting the opposition to 13 runs.

Tiny's has tallied 58 times in the same number of games while the opposition has 20 runs to their credit.

The Merchants have two top hurlers in Art Heasel and Pete Deis with Manager Ade Gensoul undecided on his starting thrower while Les Lloyd puts his ace "Hurry-up-Harry" Dunham on the mound with Ed Bill ready in reserve.

The starting lineups as released last Tuesday are as follows:

	Tiny's Hut	W. C. Merchants
C.	Bert Everett	Ray Nivola
P.	Harry Dunham	Art Heasel or Pete Deis
1st	Hec Miles	Frank Buchanan
2nd	Frank Leintz	Dave Perreira
3rd	Phil Churchill	Fred Dull
S.S.	Billy Tyree	Billy Ryan
C.F.	Manuel Guido	Harold Maxwell
L.F.	Elmer Tackett	Dick Bassett
R.F.	Pete Giammona	Gil Haley

League standings took a new twist this week when it was announced by League President Les Lloyd that the National Guard games of the first half of league play were to be considered as exhibitions and that the Guard would have no league standing in view of the fact that they would be out of play for two weeks while at encampment at Camp Cooke. Difficulties of scheduling were given as the reason for keeping the Guard out of official standings. The second half will find them back in an official status.

The past week found Tiny's running true to form when they tripped Della Pipa on Wednesday, June 13, 7-0 while the Legion helped their cause on Thursday, the 14th, as they shut out V.F.W. for a 7-0 win.

The W. C. Merchants posted a 6-1 win over Sun Valley on Thursday, the 15th, and V.F.W. tallied a lucky 13 times to give Della Pipa the works 13-3 on Friday, the 18th, while Tiny's Hut had a field night in the second game routing Sun Valley 22-9.

Monday, June 25, it's Sun Valley and the American Legion in the opener with W. C. Merchants and Della Pipa in the second game.

Tuesday, June 26, finds the games devoted to the Service Clubs of Walnut Creek. The night is an annual affair and will find a good number of "has beens" on hand to display their athletic prowess. Fans are assured a night of fun with "gags" and stunts a feature of the evening's fun.

Ralston Added to Diablo Coaches

John Ralston, one of the University of California Bear's outstanding defensive fullbacks, is the latest addition to the Mt. Diablo High School's athletic staff.

Ralston will assist newly appointed Coach Rod Franz with the Devil's football eleven and may also replace Jim Mallard as baseball coach. Franz and Ralston were teammates at California. Both battled for Bear honors under Coach Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf.

Baseball Coach Mallard is expected to take over Mt. Diablo High's wrestling, gymnastics and tumbling program.

Rounding out the Devils coaching staff are Dick Miller of the Junior Varsity and Pete Kramer. An estimated 200 students are expected to turn out for this Fall's athletic program at Diablo.

W.C., Lafayette, Orinda Players Get Plenty of Action in Legion Baseball

By ERWIN MATTSON

IT APPEARS THAT THE LEGION'S baseball program is going to pay off in more ways than one.

The Walnut Creek and Lafayette Posts have both sponsored teams this year, and a large number of players from Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda are getting very valuable experience.

Baseball is one game that one must play a great deal of in order to become a top performer.

The two-games-a-week schedule has given all players lots of playing time. Hitters have faced all types of pitching, and, as a result, players have more poise and are getting more hits.

A good number of pitchers have been worked, and here again the results have been good.

BOB WESTLUND, diminutive southpaw for the Walnut Creek team, threw a four-hitter the last time out, against the league-leading El Cerrito nine, while Rick Johnson of Orinda, pitching for Lafayette, tossed a three-hitter against Antioch last Sunday.

Bob Borghesani of the Lafayette nine is getting the knack of putting his body into the pitch and is developing a blazing fast ball which can be real fast, what with his six-foot-three frame and better than 200 pounds of heft.

The Legion League winds up June 30. It is hoped to schedule a number of twilight games the latter part of July.

Cool evening weather and less interference with jobs make twilight games desirable. If played at regular dates, they could rsult in a fan following.

THERE WAS A TIME when baseball was the big spectator affair, with every town having its representative nine.

Speeding up of the mode of living, in general, and the advent of the automobile, in particular, have cut down on attendance to the point where players often outnumber spectators.

The automobile has made it easier for people to get places, and has also tended to diversify interests.

MORE BOYS HAVE displayed interest in baseball this summer than at any other time since Acalanes started back in 1940.

Look for a big boom in the sport in the next few years.

The new Acalanes field compares with the best and will go a long way toward developing top nines through its summer use.

WORD HAS BEEN received in a news release from the Contra Costa Junior College West Campus that they are now an official member of the Big Seven, composed of Modesto, San Francisco City College, Sacramento, Stockton, Santa Rosa, San Mateo and Contra Costa West.

The league, on paper, appears to be a fast one, and the winner will have to be top flight.

Contra Costa West had a fine football season last year, when they fielded their first club under the guidance of Jack Danilovich and Hugh Boschetti.

A change has been made. Boschetti will be at the East Campus this year and will team up with Hal Buffa during the gridiron season.

Rumor has it that Orlando Chiavini, former Acalanes star, and last year's first string tackle at Contra Costa West, will transfer to the East Campus. He may be joined by George Cockerton, former All County guard from Acalanes, who starred on the Oregon State Frosh last season.

Too much wet weather up North and a desire to be back home may find George at the Contra Costa West Campus come fall.

THE EAST CAMPUS is in the process of developing its new 100-acre site on the outskirts of Pacheco, and grass is being planted to provide a turf for the Fall, with a baseball field getting under way in the near future.

Temporary buildings are scheduled to be set up, ready for occupancy with the opening of school.

It is rumored that some Junior College games may be televised. The Pacific Coast Conference has ruled television out, and the TV powers that be have been getting together with the J.C. officials in a number of pow-wows.

Could be that television fans will see live on-the-spot telecasts, after all.

The Pacific Coast Conference will come to it in time. Anything new represents change and people in general are slow to change the status quo.

Radio went through the same process of development, although after listening to some of the programs, I wonder if I shouldn't say process of "decline" rather than development?

Diablo Gun Club On Weekend Trip With Friendly Foe

Departing today for a weekend of fishing and shooting in the Sierra foothills with members of the West Point Rod and Gun Club are 150 members from the Diablo Rod and Gun Club.

Heading the Walnut Creek delegation will be President Howard Christensen. He will be assisted in herding his club members in the right direction by Vice President Lola Armstrong, Secretary Reino Alto, Treasurer Bill Cutz and Sergeant-at-Arms Ed Roads.

The Walnut Creek visitors will be presented with a key to West Point at a civic celebration tomorrow night followed by a parade. Saturday the Walnut Creek "Tule Rooters" will go trout fishing and picnic with the West Point "Poison Oakers," followed by a rifle and pistol shooting match in the late afternoon.

On Sunday it will be a trap shooting contest for the perpetual trophy now held by the Diablo Club. In September the West Point club members will visit Diablo Rod and Gun Club in Walnut Creek.

Concord Indians Not Heap Tough

The Concord Indians may be a tough nut to crack for other nines of the county but are duck soup for the Lafayette Legion team.

The but once defeated Indians invaded Acalanes diamond last Saturday and went home on the short end of a 5-2 count.

Lafayette found things a little tougher when it played a return game at Concord Wednesday afternoon and had to go an extra inning for a 3-2 win.

SATURDAY'S GAME found John Olcott on the mound blanking the opposition the first two frames before being relieved by Rick Johnson in the third.

Concord scored twice in the third on two hits to take an early lead, only to have Lafayette find the range in the fourth and score four runs with a barrage of five hits and a walk.

FINAL TALLY CAME in the sixth when Mike White reached first on a second baseman's error and came home on Jim Small's single to right.

Wednesday's game proved to be a thriller, with Olcott taking the mound and blanking the opposition for six innings before an overthrow by Catcher Andy Monsen in the seventh gave the Indians two runs to tie the game.

BUT LAFAYETTE came back in the extra inning to score the winning run when Monsen smashed a hard-hit single to deep left to score John Conley, who had reached first via the walk route and had gone to second on Rick Johnson's blow for a safety to right field.

LAFAYETTE SCORED two in the third on three hits by George Fortado, Richard Davis and Andy Monsen.

Olcott threw a one-hitter the only Concord blow coming in the fifth when Ray Quigley hit a single to left field, while the local nine garnered six safeties with Orinda's Andy Monsen getting two for four tries at the plate.

Divoter Dilling Now A Salesman

Ed Dilling, commercial teacher and golf coach at Acalanes for the past two years, this week announced his resignation from the high school faculty in order to be sales representative in this area for Nutrilite Food Supplement.

As golf coach, he mentored the county championship divoters this past season. As commercial teacher, he taught typing, shorthand, business law and salesmanship.

Tee Up Golfers, Hole-in-1 or Else

A lot of fun is in store for Walnut Creek Area golfers next month when the Walnut Creek Kiwanis Club stages its first annual Hole-In-One tournament at the Walnut Creek City Park.

The contest will be held July 28 and 29. Golfers can register at the scene. The small registration fee will benefit the Kiwanis Youth activities.

Prizes for the tourney will be announced later.

Here's Your Current Hunt-Fish Calendar

The Division of Fish and Game reminds California sportsmen of the following general regulations which apply to current hunting and fishing:

TROUT—Ends October 31. Bag and possession limits: 15 trout, salmon, or whitefish, or combination; in Lake Merced, San Francisco County, no more than 2 fish.

Angling hours: one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset; night permitted in Bucks Lake, Plumas County.

BLACK BASS, SUNFISH, crappie, Sacramento perch—Bag limits: 5 black bass, 25 sunfish, crappie, perch.

Local exceptions. No size limits

STRIPED BASS—No closed season. Bag limit: 5 fish or 25 pounds and one fish, or 2 fish regardless of weight.

Minimum size limit: 12 inches.

CATFISH—No closed season. Bag limit: 15 pounds and one fish. Night fishing permitted in Siskiyou, Shasta, Lake and Modoc Counties.

Minimum size limit in Clear Lake only: 9 inches.

OCEAN FISH—No closed season in Pacific Ocean on following species: Salmon, trout, rockfish, bluefin tuna, yellowfin tuna, skipjack, yellowtail, marlin, broadbill swordfish, black sea bass, albacore, barracuda, white sea bass, bonito, rock bass, sand bass, kelp bass, halibut, corbina, croaker, lingcod and cabezone

Bag limits: 3 trout or salmon north of Monterey-San Luis Obispo County line; 2 south; 15 in aggregate, but not more than 10 of any one of other species listed above.

GRUNION—May be taken on beach or in surf by hand only.

No appliances or holes which may entrap grunion may be used.

CLAMS—Closed in Humboldt and Monterey Bay areas. No closed season elsewhere.

Bag limits: 10 Pismo, 30 razor, 10 big neck, 10 Washington; no limit on jack knife clams.

COCKLES—Closed in all counties north of San Luis Obispo County. No closed season elsewhere.

Bag limit: 50. Minimum size limit: 1½ inches.

JACK RABBITS—Opens September 1 in southern California districts 4, 4 1/8, 4¾, 19, 20 and 22.

No closed season elsewhere. No bag limit.

FROGS—Bag limits: 24 per day, 48 per week.

Size limit: None under four inches from tip of nose to crotch. No license required.

The Happy Country Folk

By EDITH BOLMAN

"SHIP AHOY," says Cookie Jelton, "or I'll ketch you with my spinnaker" — no, no, that can't be right, but anyway the annual yacht race to Honolulu starts on the Fourth of July, and the Oakland area is to be represented by the Vad Jeltons on their yacht Minerva.

It is to be a family affair, Mr. J. the captain, Mrs. J. the galley slave, and son Pete the cabin boy, plus a crew of six.

Elaborate preparations are being made to get everything and everybody in shipshape order and on the 27th of June they leave here for Los Angeles.

The evening before the race there will be festivities for the participants starting off with a banquet at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach. The next day, the big day, off they go full speed ahead with Diamond Head as the goal.

The arrival is gay and flowery, a contingent of local yachts meets the incoming marathoner with leis for the neck and praise for the ears.

Then the mariners check in at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel for a bath and a haircut, then off to track down authentic food, flowers and props for the Luau to be given at their home in September for the benefit of the Children's Hospital.

(Our private suspicion is that by that time Galley Jelton will have had enough cooking to last her for a while and will just be able to manage props, flowers and ideas.)

Anyway, we are sure she will come back with some sparkling new plans to add to the already plenty glamorous party.

MR. AND MRS. HARVEY LYON have returned from a fascinating sounding trip to Europe.

They aren't going to unpack much, though, because from what we can gather they are going to be pretty busy bees this year what with several more trips planned.

THE STARLIGHT WALTZ at the Brazilian Room for the Daphne Branch (Acalanes) of the Children's Hospital was a pretty party to see.

All the little daphnes were garbed in summer formals, and they danced and ate punch and sandwiches.

(Our informer tells us that they ate continuously all evening long.)

The bids were made by the girls, of violet velveteen in most effective fashion.

Chaperones were Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Seulberger, Fred Goodwin, Stanford White and Glen Spencer.

WE JUST HAD A LONG telephone conversation with Mrs. Art Olsen of swimming fame (you remember Zoe Anne, of course).

Mr. and Mrs. O. are steering the Athens Club celebrities to Happy Valley for the Children's Hospital Luau in the fall, and you have just never heard of such a long list of famous names, championships, records won and over-all importance.

One little number which we can hardly wait to see — a French Can-Can danced and swum by the ballet, on the heels of which the men performers will do a parody. We have heard this one is terrific.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES NORTH are flying east soon to visit Mrs. North's mother, Mrs. Charles V. Peters, in Glens Falls, N. Y., then on to New York City, and home again by the middle of July.

All that right after a trip to Yosemite, too!

MRS. ROBERT HARRISON and the two boys have left for Summerville, N. J., for a visit.

While there they are going to take a cottage on the Jersey shores for the rest of the vacation. Dr. and Mrs. Sam Williams from Colorado Springs are renting their home.

Goodbye for now, we'll be back again soon.

Shopping Center To Open Oct. 11th

The $3,000,000 MacDonald Shopping Center will be officially opened on October 11, it was announced today by Miss Edith Apgar, property manager.

The new opening date has been set in order to clear the annual Walnut Festival always held in September, Miss Apgar said.

Construction work on the project is still progressing at a rapid pace but slightly behind schedule due to last winter's early and heavy rains. Two previously announced opening dates are being by-passed by the new announcement.

E.B.M.U.D. PAY RAISE

Employees of the East Bay Municipal Utility District have been notified that a general salary increase of 3 per cent will take effect July 1.

(Courtesy of Orinda News)

'SWAN LAKE' is the featured ballet in tonight's Dance Recital by students of the Lila Murphy Dance Studio. Here is Diana Lee Nielsen, who dances the lead in this full-length number performed to the lovely "Swan Lake" music of Tschaikovsky. The recital is at Acalanes High School auditorium.

Panama Visitors

Mrs. Fred Ryan of Panama has arrived in Lafayette for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Howell of Hough Avenue. Mrs. Ryan was accompanied by her three children—Michael, Fred and Tommy Her husband will presently join the family for a vacation.

Visitors at Kinseths

Mrs. Christina Kinseth of Humboldt, Iowa, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Kinseth of Woodland Drive. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Lorraine Schuper, and her two children.

Don't burn without a permit.

150 Children Will Dance Tonight at Lila Murphy Studio's Annual Recital

About 150 children will take part in the fifth annual Dance Recital of the Lila Murphy Dance Studio tonight at Acalanes High School auditorium.

From the featured ballet, "Swan Lake," to the tap and acrobatic numbers, the program promises to be one of satisfying entertainment.

The ballet class toe-pupils will perform the full-length "Swan Lake" to the lovely music of Tschaikovsky.

Other numbers on the two-hour program include:

The "Ballet Egyptian," danced by the older girls, and the "Indian Theme" by the intermediate class. These two will highlight the first half of the program.

"Leprechaun's Gift," an Irish dance drama, based on a story told to Mrs. Murphy as a child. This will be performed by several classes, including the three-year-olds.

"Peter and the Wolf," for the special delight of the very young in the audience.

Tap, acrobatic and diverse numbers.

Musical Program Planned Sept. 14

An evening of piano, vocal and flute music featuring Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Popovich of Orinda and Tom Hageman of Lafayette will be given September 14 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Long in Sleepy Hollow. The soloists will be assisted by a double string quartet from the newly organized Orinda Little Symphony.

Both Mr .and Mrs. Popovich are prominent in Bay musical circles. Tom Hageman has varied musical talents and is a recepient of an important scholarship at the Curtis School of Music in Philadelphia, where he will study the flute under Kincaid, the world's leading master of this instrument.

The program will include a group of piano numbers by Popovich and songs and arias sung by Mrs. Popovich, soprano. Flute solos and a concerto for flute and strings are to be Hageman's instrumental contribution. Also a tenor singer of operatic quality, he will join with Mrs. Popovich in a costumed finale of Puccini.

This evening of fine music will be given to benefit the organ fund of the Community Church in Orinda.

PORT CHICAGO JOB

Captain F. J. Eckhoff, commanding officer of the Port Chicago Naval Magazine, announces that the station has received authorization to accept applications for the position of shop learner, $1.36 per hour.

Straw Hat Opens With Sparkling New Production

The Straw Hat Theatre opened its fifth consecutive summer season in the Lafayette Town Hall Wednesday when the curtain rose on its newest original musical revue, "How Can You Miss?"

The musical, with sketches and lyrics by Elizabeth Berryhill and music by Gordon Connell, follows the familiar rollicking pattern of past Straw Hat Revues from the opening title song to the finale and includes sketches, pantomimes and tuneful songs and dances, which live up to or surpass past revues.

The production is under the supervision of Elizabeth Berryhill with sketches staged by Louis Bennett and songs by Jeanne Taylor Herst. Straw Hat old-timers Carol Brumm, Jane Connell, Gordon Connell, John Tomaschke, Louis Bennett and Bob Cowell are aided and abetted by new cast-members Betty Cole, Anne Soule, Dorothy Johnson and William Rush. Dub Johnson is once again at the piano.

Finish 1st Aid Study

When the First Aid class at the Orinda Grammar School dwindled to a point below which the Red Cross would not permit its continuance as a separate unit, Orinda Fire Inspector Bill Koch consolidated his Canyon-Moraga class with the Orinda group and enabled the following Orinda women to finish the course: Mesdames John Ogden, M. R. Williams, H. H. Lowthian, H. E. Cannon and G. S. Worrell.

Canyon Callings . . .

FATHER'S DAY has come and gone. The Paul Fosters entertained Mrs. Foster's father and mother with a turkey dinner. The Claude Seeds family traveled to Oakland to have dinner with Mrs. Seeds' father and mother.

Some celebrated with family picnics, others got that bit of repair work or gardening done. Most fathers, however, received the usual father's day gift from the family — one we know received his gift with the bill for same enclosed.

LATEST REPORT from the Martinez Hospital, where she is hospitalized, is that Mrs. Pearl Goss is resting easily after a chest operation.

ALICE AND CURLEY Busan, with Roy Gesinger of Moraga, spent Sunday motor-boating up the San Joaquin River in search of illusive fish.

"JAY" JACOBS and family drove to Strawberry Lake in the Sierras last Saturday for a weekend camp-out.

JIM FOSKETT, U. S. Army, accompanied by his wife, spent his first leave with his mother, Mrs. Roy Joynes. Jim's home is in Sacramento but he is now stationed at Fort Ord.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chessum and family left Canyon Sunday by auto for Oregon, where they will spend the summer months. They also plan to spend some time in Washington.

Jeff Dunham is in Camp Gualala, the Berkeley Hi-Y camp in the Russian River area.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilkinson left Friday evening to spend two weeks motoring through Oregon, where they will visit friends and relatives.

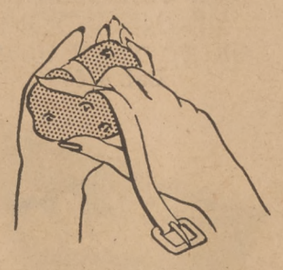

A PHONE CALL FROM Butte, Montana, Sunday night by "Mo" Blaskovich let his mother know that he had arrived safely Friday evening. Reason for not calling sooner: a two day fishing trip to the mountains. Monday he started a summer job in Anaconda, near Butte.

Blaskovich, Sr., recently took over a Lincoln-Mercury dealership in Anaconda and Butte. Mrs. Blaskovich and younger son Tim will join the rest of the family about July 1. Bay city friends entertained Mrs. Blaskovich and young Tim with a farewell picnic supper at the picnic grove Sunday afternoon.

NOTE TO THE KIDS — and their parents: The sheriff's office has issued a warning that all fireworks are unlawful.

HELPFUL HINTS

FROM MILTIE

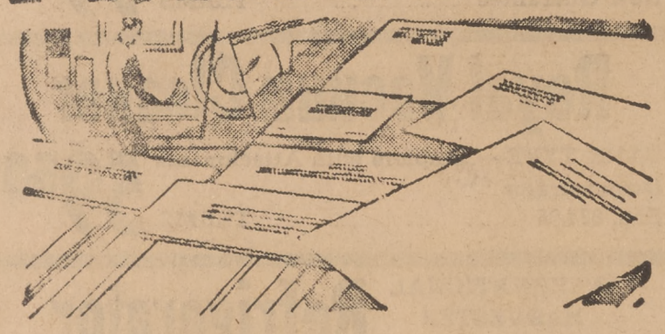

When you've been out for the afternoon and the head of the house is roaring for his dinner, try this time saver. Wash your potatoes, peel a belt of skin from the middle of each spud and plop them in to boil. When they're done, just pinch the skins from the ends and they're ready to go!

Spuds always remind we of cigarettes and cigarettes of chesterfields of which we have some awful nice ones. Lawson sofas, camel backs, loose pillow backs and wing back styles in many covers. You can also pick your own covers without the expense of having it custom made. You get good quality and good value at Lafayette Furniture.

That left over "half serving" of strawberries or sliced peaches can be mashed up and put into a gelatin dessert with very tasty results. Left over fruit juices can also be used to improve the favor in this kind of dessert.

How to make good telephone service even better...

Faster Long Distance service if you place your call like this Maybe you never thought of it this way, but you can help your Long Distance operator save your time if you give her your call like this: First, the name of the town you're calling. Then the telephone number. And finally the name of the person you're calling—if it's a person call. You'll find this tip particularly helpful these days when Long Distance lines are busy carrying the calls that are aiding our military forces and our industries to build the nation's strength.

Have you started keeping a handy out-of-town number list? You'll find you can save considerable time in completing Long Distance calls if you give the operator the number you want rather than just the name and address. That way, you see, you won't have to wait while she calls "Information" in the distant town to get the number you're calling.

Orioles Net $779 From Joint Show

The Orinda Orioles, local afternoon section of the Mt. Diablo Child Therapy Center, met June 13 at the home of Mrs. Walter Friberg, 29 Via Floreado.

After the serving of a delicious dessert and a getting-better-acquainted period, the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Carl Wellington Smith.

AMONG THE INTERESTING reports was that of Ways and Means Chairman Mrs. F. M. Silva, who told the 25 members present that she had received a check from the Tanagers for $779, the Orioles' share of the net profits of the May 9 luncheon and children's fashion show put on at the Diablo Country Club by both groups.

To keep up active interest in the work for the Therapy Center, Mrs. Silva suggested that during the summer the Orioles have neighborhood potluck barbecues which their husbands could attend, possibly "Stanley" parties and card parties, charging what they wished with the understanding that all proceeds be contributed to the Oriole treasury.

MRS. SILVA ALSO suggested that members keep in mind a magazine drive for new subscriptions and renewals, a rummage sale, and an old magazine sale in the Fall. There were many expressions of interest and willingness by members to work on these projects.

After the meeting members enjoyed walking through Mrs. Friberg's attractive garden and patios and seeing the wonderful views from their wooded heights.

Two Local Girls on Lux Student Board

Phyllis Culver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Culver of Walnut Creek, and Joan Niemann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Niemann of Lafayette, have been elected to the student board of control at Lux College in San Francisco.

The girls. who are studying to become medical assistants, assumed their duties at an installation luncheon June 7 and will continue in office through the Fall semester.

Miss Niemann, newly elected vice-president of the student body, has served as secretary of the student body and as secretary-treasurer of her class. She is a member of Alpha Gamma Sigma, California junior college honor society.

Miss Culver, who is student body treasurer, is also a member of Alpha Gamma Sigma.

Both girls are graduates of Acalanes High School.

Mrs. Lyon To Be Feted upon Return From Europe Trip

Guests of Mrs. E. Wynne Newell, member of Acalanes Chapter, D.A.R., will gather at a luncheon at Walnut Creek Art and Garden Center Wednesday. Incentive for the affair is the return of Mrs. Harvey Lyon, chapter regent, from a two-and-a-half month tour through seven European countries.

The honor guest will describe her travels from which she returned June 12. Site of the Art and Garden Center is the old family home of Mrs. Newell.

Redwood Empire Viewed From Air

Residents of this area recently completed the Redwood Empire Tour as scheduled.

The third time proved to be a charm for the "flying foursome" of Canyon. Pilot E. O. Musser and his wife, Evelyn, and Gordon and Lillie Wilkinson viewed the Redwood Empire from the topside all the way on the air tour.

Two previous tours had been grounded by inclement weather before reaching Grants Pass, Ore. The air caravan was composed of 35 planes and about 100 people.

Local members of the Civil Air Patrol who took part were the Mussers and Wilkinsons of Canyon, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Antons of Lafayette and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. White of Walnut Creek. They are members of the Mt. Diablo Squadron of the C.A.P.

3 Guests of Honor At This Glen Taylor Faculty Get-Together

With three guests of honor for the afternoon, the faculty of Glen Taylor School of Walnut Creek enjoyed a get-together recently at the home of Mrs. Charles D. Davis of Brown Avenue, Lafayette.

When the guests first arrived for the afternoon party they were greeted by little Lynn Campbell and Jerry Wallace, dressed as a bride and groom. To the strains of the Lohengrin Wedding March the tiny couple presented each guest with a corsage marked "June and Frank — June 22," revealing the wedding plans of June Campbell and Frank Aiman. Mrs. Campbell has served as a house mother at the Glen Taylor School this past year.

After luncheon was served, a lullaby was played by Mrs. Drew, and little Lynn Campbell, dressed as a nurse, presented Mrs. Jane Anderson, one of the school faculty, with a doll buggy overflowing with gifts for her baby-to-be.

Later in the afternoon the members of the Glen Taylor staff, of which the hostess, Mrs. Davis, is a member, presented their principal, Mrs. Georgia T. Cooper, with a gift of appreciation.

STOCK CAR CHAMPIONSHIP

The national 250-lap Stock Car Championship is billed for Oakland Stadium Sunday, July 1.

Tanagers to Meet Wednesday Night

The Tanagers, Mt. Diablo Child Therapy Center, will hold their last meeting before the summer next Wednesday night, 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Ida Zamloch, 420 Moraga Highway.

Co-hostesses will be Mesdames Andrew Catherall, C. Lafayette Smith and J. P. Laird.

All residents of this area are urged to continue bringing their old newspapers and magazines to the fire house, as this project will continue during the summer, with the proceeds all going to the center.

Mills of Justice Sure Grind Slow!

Although he didn't say it, the Knave, in his Oakland Tribune column last Friday, might well have commented, "Efficiency, what blunders are committed in thy name!"

Meaning "efficiency" in the district attorney's office. But let the Knave tell it in his own words:

"It isn't always the big court cases that get drawn out for years and years.

"Way back on September 22, 1948, one Richard B. Cunningham was arrested during the Contra Costa County oil strike.

"It took him until May 2, 1951, to get out of jeopardy.

"Cunningham, a truck driver, was accused of firing a .22 caliber pistol at a group of pickets. One Henry Diaz got plugged in the leg and had Cunningham arrested for assault with a deadly weapon.

"Ever since then the case has been called at intervals—in October and November, 1948; January, February, twice in July, and October, 1949; March, June, August and September, 1950.

"Each time the matter was continued, until finally, on May 2, the Contra Costa County district attorney's office moved for a dismissal of the charges.

"It only took DA Francis Collins two years and eight months to reach the decision the case wasn't worth bringing to trial."

Mrs. Warner Hostess At Luncheon for 15

The home of Mrs. George Warner on Overhill Road was the setting for a recent luncheon for 15 friends.

The day was warm, so luncheon was served in the barbecue area, surrounded by oaks and bay trees. Those enjoying Mrs. Warner's hospitality were:

Mesdames Henry Steinbach, Lloyd F. Van Fleet, William Wright, Larry Reiwerts, Edward Johnson, Harold Towne, Frank Ransome, Charles Chubb, Edward Gardiner, Jack Rush, Harold Mounday, Frank Johnston, Leslie Bayley, Jerry McCord and George Bray.

Move to Orinda

Recent newcomers to Orinda are the Charles Hunts and their young daughter, who have purchased a home on Berkeley Avenue. Both Mr. Hunt and his wife, the former Nancy Brown ,are graduates of the University of California, where she was a Gamma Phi Beta and he belonged to Phi Kappa Sigma.

Chit and Chat about Don and Donna

By MARY THIES

HAPPY DAYS ARE HERE again! If everyone lived through the hectic weeks of parties, graduation, etc., we're all now looking forward to three months of vacation.

I've always heard that graduation is a sad time of year—but judging from the parties, people aren't too sad.

Private parties are the most popular but quite often they end up traveling to some night spot. A few of the favorite ones are Planters Dock, El Nido, the Fairmont, Caffee Dan's, Claremont, Willows, and we musn't forget the "Doggie Diner."

Speaking of the Willows, last Friday night the Blueprint staff at Acalanes gave a party. The general business of the evening was dining and dancing but everybody went some place else afterwards for more festivities.

SCHOOL WAS OUT last Thursday, and that night there were quite a few parties.

A few boys got together and planned a hayride at which the following couples were seen:

Jayne Kirk and Bill Matheson, Chris Johnson and Duyane Hodge, Carol Rucker and Jim Lostroh, Sally Fleager and Sven Groennings, Tom Tilton and a girl from Head's, Elaine Ranker and Richard Rogers, Renon Hagens and Ted Sanford and Jackie Irving and Jim Hall.

After the hayride they all went swimming, but from all reports they were "all wet" to begin with. Since when do high school seniors (and most of them are seniors by now) play with water guns?

ANOTHER CELEBRATION Thursday night was the Children's Hospital dance at the Brazilian Room at Tilden Park.

Joan McCrum and Steve Lawrence, Francie Logeson and Roger Lundgren, Diana Graves and Don Cvietusa and Phyllis Pyle and Walt Williams were just a few of the many couples attending this affair.

THAT'S ALL the news for now—but I would appreciate it if you would let me know if you are planning to go anywhere this summer.

I'd like very much to make a success of this column during the summer but I need your help. You can reach me at Moraga 8887.

Y Men Hold Meeting

George Shoptaugh of Lafayette presented an illustrated program on "Trailer Camping" and David Comstock, Walnut Creek artist, was the five-minute speaker at a dinner meeting of the Central Contra Costa County Y's Men's group at Klee's restaurant in Lafayette June 14.

Pack 52 Holds Term's Last Meet

Presentation of awards, introduction of new committeemen and an entertainment program combined to make an especially interesting final session of the term for Orinda Cub Pack 52 Monday night at the Orinda School.

Six boys received the Webelos, the highest rank in cubbing: Stephen Parks, Lynn Hill, Stephen De Maria, Charles McQuiddy, Fred Morris, Wendell Williams.

Award winners in the various dens were:

Den 1, Stephen Parks, David Pringle; Den 2, Tim Carter, Vincent Sherrin, Kenneth Sherrin, Jud Carter, David Puddy; Den 3, Robert Anthonisen, Bill McGuire; Den 4, Michael Halloran, Jack Doty; Den 5, Thomas Mika; Den 6, Robin McIntyre.

Den 6, Peter Stocker, Joe Cayting, Dick Allen, Phil Nuffer; Den 7, Tommy White, Michael Donovan, Mario Guarneri; Den 9, Lynn Hall, Charles McQuiddy, Bob Ready, Peter Read, Richard Moore.

Boys who will be 11 years old during the summer and automatically leave the pack are Charles Schrader, Philip Cook, John Dodge and Wendell Williams.

Stephen Hicks was welcomed back to the pack after an absence in Carmel. Den 6 won the pennant in honor of the largest number of awards presented.

New pack committee chairmen for the year were introduced. Bill Ellermeyer is cubmaster; Walt Mulks, Russell Honnold and Bud McQuiddy, assistant cubmasters; Harry Minor, committee chairman; Bob Brown, treasurer; Robert Anthonisen, publicity; Olof Dahlstrand, properties; Frank Cayting, membership; Joe Sheerin, athletics; Thomas Mika, institutional representative; Kay McGuire, secretary; Frances Doty, den mother adviser.

The baseball trophy won by Cub Pack 52 in the Diablo Area Cub Pack League Baseball series was displayed by Bill Huston, retiring team manager.

Dan Sheldon and Jerry Cullen, scoutmasters of Orinda Boy Scout Troops 200 and 207, were introduced.

With the circus as theme, each den presented a skit. Summer activities were planned.

The champ Pack 52 baseball team met Pack 11, Berkeley League champs, in a game at Orinda last Saturday. Orinda won, 21 to 7, with four innings played with the 9-inch ball the local team is accustomed to using, and three innings played with the 12-inch ball.

2 Former Donnas In Honor Society

Two Acalanes High School graduates have been elected to membership in the Lux College chapter of Alpha Gamma Sigma, California Junior College Honor Society.

They are Phyllis Culver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Culver of Walnut Creek and Joan Niemann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Niemann of Lafayette.

Both girls are preparing to become medical assistants and will receive theifr Associate of Arts degrees in June, 1952. Miss Niemann is secretary of the student body and has served also as secretary-treasurer of her class.

Mrs. Wehmeier Wins Scholarship For Vassar Study

Mrs. Harvey Wehmeier of 3603 Powell Drive has won a partial scholarship to the Summer Institute at Vassar College. The San Francisco Bay Aera Vassar Club is making up the difference, so that Mrs. Wehmeier can receive the benefit of full Summer Institute study.

A Barnard graduate with additional nursery school training, Mrs. Wehmeier has taught at the Sara Dix Hamlin School and has been director of the Mill Valley Cooperative Nursery School.

After this summer she hopes to start a nursery school in Lafayette, at which her two children would be among the original pupils.

Newlyweds Honored Before Trip to N.Y.

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Christian August Kauffeld, for whom long-time friends Mr. and Mrs. John P .Lynch were witnesses at their marriage in Trinity Episcopal Cathedral in Reno May 8, are now visiting in New York.

Following the interval in the eastern city, the bride and groom will go on to Mr. Kauffeld's home in Singapore, British Malaya.

The bride is the former Mrs. Margaret Brown of Stockton and Aptos.

Following their brief honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Kauffeld were Pinecrest Manor guests of Mr. and Mrs. French, who also entertained recently in their honor at a farewell dinner at Orinda Country Club and again at an informal cocktail party.

Announce Troth Of Nancy Johnson, George Van Voorhis

Engagement of Nancy Johnson, daughter of Mrs. George A. King of 42 Oakland Avenue, Lafayette, and George Thomas Van Voorhis, son of Mrs. Ruth W. Van Voorhis of Walnut Heights was announced this week by Nancy's mother.

No date has been set for the wedding. Tom, as the groom-to-be is known to his friends, is in the Air Force, stationed at George Air Force Base at Victorville, Calif. He expects to be sent to France soon.

Nancy is a student at Acalanes High School, where she will be a senior next Fall. Her fiance, until he joined the Air Force in January, was attending San Francisco City College, majoring in economics.

Nancy's brother, Richard Johnson of San Francisco, is also in the Air Force. He is stationed at Lowry Air Force Base, Denver.

Summer Is Here at Last–Arrived Officially Last Night at 10:15

Summer officially arrived last night.

There's no telling what the weather will be like when this is read, but we can safely say the official Summer solstice made its appearance last night at 10:15 p.m. (Pacific Daylight Saving Time).

The calculations come from Uncle Sam's official weather observers and forecasters.

All of which means yesterday was the longest day of the year.

It happens that the North Pole is tilted at the eventful 10:15 p.m. hour exactly 23 degrees and a fraction toward the sun and the days in our Northern Hemisphere are longer than the nights, according to the weather experts.

The heating influence of the sun increases with the length of the day and with the sun's altitude at noon. Therefore, the greatest daily accession of heat is at the summer solstice, they point out.

It is also this month that the heat received from the Sun by day far exceeds the loss through radiation by night, and it is not until July or August that the two become equal and the maximum temperature of the year is experienced, is their conclusion.

Yep, it's summer!

Farm Bureau Home Department Women Install Officers

The Home Department women of Contra Costa County Committee of the Farm Bureau met last Friday at the Agricultural Extension Service Auditorium at Cowell.

Live Oak and Byron Home departments with their chairman Mrs. J. T. Crockett and Mrs. Frank Caldera were hostesses and made arrangements for the Pot Luck Luncheon.

Miss Helen Burling, former Contra Costa County Home advisor, presented each Home Department chairman with a scroll thanking them for past services.

Mrs. Howard Weidemann of San Ramon, Regional chairman No. 9, installed the new County Committee officers. They were:

Mrs. Paul Somerhalder, chairman; Mrs. Mabel Minaker, vice chairman; Mrs. George Fox, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Leonard Seclef, publicity chairman; Mrs. H. C. Wiedemann, former County chairman; Mrs. Delbert Starr, scholarship chairman.

Mrs. Date Littorno, Youth Assistance; Mrs. Kenneth Ferrell, Health and Safety; Mrs. Harry Hobbs, Fairs; Mrs. Lon Thomas, Education; Miss Helen Durling, Summer Camp; Mrs. H. Henkel, Legislation; Mrs. Thomas Plumb, 4-H Representative.

The Byron Home department presented each officer with a corsage.

The County Committee is paying one-half of the summer camp expense for four 4-H girls with Mrs. Plumb and Mrs. Ardith Osborn Steger, Home Advisor in Contra Costa County 4-H Club work approving of this plan.

Miss Julia Pond, Home Management Specialist, University of California, talked on "Home Making made Easy" with colored illustrations.

Mrs. Somerhalder closed the meeting by announcing the next meeting will be held on September 7

School Employees To Attend Meets

Information on the operation of schools will be made available to employees of Contra Costa schools at two institutes to be held following the close of classes.

Charles Ferrell, coordinator of trade and industrial education, announces that the annual institute for custodians and bus drivers will be held June 25, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., at Roosevelt Junior High School auditorium, Richmond.

Clerks and secretaries from school offices throughout the county will attend the second institute, June 29 at Alhambra Union High School, Martinez. Mrs. Grace Thomson, head of the accounting department in the county superintendent's office, is assisting with program arrangements.

Annual teachers' institute is scheduled preceding the opening of classes in the Fall. Mrs. Josephine Rea, institute chairman, said that more than 2,000 teachers will participate.

DeTar Visitors Leave

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald DeTar and sons Curtis and Alan left last weekend for their home in Salt Lake City after staying here a week with Mr. DeTar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl DeTar of Brook Street.

Visits with relatives and trips around the Bay Area made their vacation stay an especially enjoyable one.
